

Star of Space 723

Chapter 723 I... OK.

On the other side, Ya Molian suddenly felt that it was the right choice for Sonner to ask him to take Jiang Zuo away. Leaving this guy here would only cause trouble to Sonner.

"Jiang Zuo, I have a set of golden needles to treat pain. You must learn it within three days, otherwise, ahem, you won't have to see Sui Ziyou again in the future." Lin Caisang said quietly.

"What?!"

When Jiang Zuo heard this, he was like a bolt from the blue.

He probably understood what Lin Caisang meant. On the way here, Ban Jue had already told him about the return of his palace master to Shaohua City.

But when the palace master relapsed, he had seen Lin Caisang use acupuncture to save people. With her technique, he might not be able to learn it in thirty days, let alone three days, right?

"What, no?" Lin Caisang looked at him and asked.

"I can."

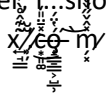

For Ziyou, let him do anything, just learn a set of acupuncture techniques. He is also a doctor, is there anything else that can defeat him?

"That's pretty much it."

Seeing that he was clearly unsure but still nodded, Lin Caisang was quite satisfied. At least he didn't shrink back because of timidity. Jiang Zuo did a pretty good job in this regard.

"Zhong You, you have used silver needles to treat others before, so you should follow suit."

She looked at Zhong You aside and said.

"Master, I...should I follow suit?" Zhong Wan raised his finger to the tip of his nose in disbelief and asked.

Since coming to Menghuang Mountain, he has been reading the medical books given to him by his master, and then collecting medicines and practicing the art of identifying medicines. As for silver needles, he always felt that his master would never let him touch them again.

Because after all, he had harmed people with silver needles before, and the one he harmed was his own grandfather.

"yes."

Lin Caisang nodded, seeing the disbelief on his face, and asked him with a slight smile.

"You are extremely talented in using silver needles, do you just want to waste it like this?"

"No, it's not."

Zhong You quickly shook his head and pursed his lower lip before speaking.

"I have been reading medical books and understanding medicines before. I thought that the master would not let me take silver needles again."

"Acupuncture can cure diseases, but more often than not, medical skills are not just a pair of silver needles, but also the ability to recognize the shape, taste, and principles of medicine. These are all things a doctor must learn."

Lin Caisang spoke to him.

"You cared too much about the silver needles in your hands before, leaving everything else behind. Now I'm just asking you to learn from scratch, that's all."

"Yes, Master, I understand."

Zhong You nodded heavily and finally understood why his master had been asking him to read medical and medicinal books these days. It was because he had read too little before and knew too little about pharmacology. He could only rely on the silver needle in his hand.

"You go and get ready. In half an hour, I will start teaching you how to use gold needles to treat pain."

...

Three days later.

Yamolian and his party were about to set off, but...

"ah!"

A scream came from the pharmacy in Menghuang Mountain, which made everyone outside the door tremble. Immediately afterwards, Lin Caisang's voice rang out as he hated the iron.

"Jiang Zuo, why are you so stupid?"

"Mother, if this hand doesn't obey my orders, there's nothing I can do about it." Jiang Zuo was so innocent that he looked at Lin Caisang with tears in his eyes.

"you....."

Lin Caisang was so angry at his words.

"If your own hands don't obey your orders, why don't you ask me to find a way for you?"
