Chapter 726 Giving each other jade pendants

"This Golden Pearl Token can still be divided? How can I divide it?"

'Using the gratitude value, the Golden Pearl Order can be divided into a clone with the same appearance, but the clone itself has no effect. It can only summon the original Golden Pearl Order. When the clone is crushed, the Golden Pearl will become hot.

A few lines of words were displayed on the jade mirror.

"It turns out you can still do this."

Lin Caisang understood that since this was the case, it would be much easier to handle.

...

When leaving the space, Lin Caisang had an extra Golden Pearl Order clone in her hand, but at the same time, her face was a bit pale, and she covered her chest with a ferocious face.

"I didn't expect this Golden Pearl Order clone to consume my power."

"Master, what's wrong with you?"

Zhong You happened to walk in carrying a large bag of medicine. Seeing Lin Caisang's face, he asked worriedly.

Lin Caisang heard his voice and immediately raised his hand to stop him.

Ya Molian went to the village to talk to some clan elders. She didn't know when they would come over. If she came over now, she would definitely be worried about her if she heard their conversation.

"It's okay. I lost my breath while refining the medicine just now. Just rest for a while."

"Yeah?"

Zhong You blinked in confusion.

He doesn't understand that refining medicine can also refine his Qi? But whatever the master says is whatever it is.

"Don't mention this matter to others, not to Yamo Lian either." Lin Caisang warned worriedly.

"Oh, I understand. Let me help you sit on the chair first." Zhong You nodded, indicating that he understood.

"Zhong You, I have something to give you."

Lin Caisang sat down, looked at Zhong You seriously, and spoke slowly.

After much thought, she still felt that Jin Zhuling's clone should be given to Zhong You for safekeeping.

If this Golden Pearl Order clone is handed over to Ya Molian, that guy will probably treat the Golden Pearl Order clone as a decoration in order to prevent her from worrying. She doesn't even want Ya Molian to know about the Golden Pearl Order clone. .

As for banishing them, they have followed Ya Molian for too long. Although they have a master-servant relationship with Ya Molian, they are actually like family members.

It is said that care between relatives leads to chaos. When something happens, they will definitely think of the Jin Zhuling clone immediately. She wants to keep this thing at the most critical moment and must not use it indiscriminately.

"You should carry this thing with you. It's best to hang it on a rope around your neck. You can't separate it from yourself for a moment."

She handed the miniature version of Jin Zhuling's clone to Zhong You and explained to him.

"Master, this is..."

Zhong You looked at the milky white, jade-like object in Lin Caisang's hand, and didn't know whether to take it or not.

"This is a life-saving thing. The poison on your master's body may be in danger at any time where you go. If you really encounter a hurdle that you can't get over, just crush this thing. Then I will know and can rush in time." Past, do you understand?"

Zhong You was stunned for a moment before he understood the meaning of Lin Caisang's words.

He was shocked. Since ancient times, men and women would only give each other jade pendants when they express their love for each other. His master actually asked him to carry this thing with him and hang it on a rope around his neck.

He was really thinking just now, if his master Ya Molian heard about this, would his head be ripped off?

It turns out that this is what it means.

"I wouldn't trust this thing if I hand it over to anyone else. You are different from the banished ones. You are not familiar with your master. When your master is in danger, you will know when to crush this piece of jade." The most appropriate time for a card, remember, you only have one chance, don't use it unless you have a last resort."
