Chapter 736: Just knock on the door

"Then..."

"Just do as you say, sister Qiubo.

Just as Lin Caisang was about to nod in response, he heard Patriarch Lin's voice ringing in his ears.

"Those guys just need a lesson. I'm going to tell them to apologize to Sangsang."

"No, no need. Grandpa Patriarch, just let them talk to my grandpa and grandma. I don't have to come forward, right?" Lin Caisang said hurriedly after hearing what he said.

"This...is OK."

Patriarch Lin looked at her, then at Lin Laogan and Lu Qiubo, and nodded.

...

"What? Why do you want us to apologize to a little girl like her?"

When the two eavesdropping men brought the words back, a woman heard this and immediately shouted in dissatisfaction.

She is the mother of several children, but she still wants to apologize to a little girl who is the same age as her children. Isn't Lin Caisang afraid of being struck by lightning? It's really too much.

"Why, with all your bad mouths, why do you let you act so carelessly outside?" The man who brought the message said angrily.

Hearing this, the woman was speechless.

"Then...if we really apologize to Lin Caisang, will the money we pay every day still be the same as before?" asked another woman.

She didn't feel anything about apologizing but not apologizing. She just had to pay an extra penny every day, which really felt like cutting her flesh. If she could save that penny by apologizing, then she would definitely go.

"The clan leader didn't mention it, so I guess I should pay two cents a day." Another man who was eavesdropping said.

It was the patriarch who ordered them to pay two pennies, but it was Lu Qiubo who asked them to apologize. It shouldn't be possible to choose only one of the two, right?

"What?"

The others jumped in anger after hearing his words.

"You want to raise money and apologize. Is it okay for the Lin family to have a little water? I asked them how to grow two crops of rice before, but they refused to tell me and said it didn't happen. But I looked at them It's clearly growing on Menghuang Mountain!"

A woman spoke angrily.

"Does Lin Laogan's family think that we are easy to bully? According to me, they can directly knock on the door and force Lin Caisang to tell him how to grow two-crop rice. In the future, even if there is no water, there will still be a kind of rice. Enough to fill a family's belly!"

"Yes, we should have done this a long time ago. That old guy Lin, I think, doesn't care about everyone else at all. He wants to hide all the benefits to himself!"

"Just knock on the door. I don't believe that Lin Laogan, a cripple, and his family can beat our whole village. Let them tell them how to grow two crops of rice, and then hand over all the water in Menghuang Mountain." Give it to us!"

Suddenly, the clamor for a crusade against Lin Caisang's family became very loud.

When one of the women saw that everyone was getting more and more heated, she rolled her eyes, secretly stepped back, and left directly.

Lin.

The woman who left the crowd ran over panting.

"Yingzi, why are you running? What are you doing?"

Patriarch Lin was just being sent out by Lu Qiubo and Lin Caisang. He saw her gasping for air and asked aloud.

"Dad, it's not good. The people in the village were instigated by the Yaji tribe's old daughter-in-law. They said they wanted to attack Sang Sang's family and force Sang Sang to teach them to grow two crops of rice and take out all the water in Menghuang Mountain. "

This person was the daughter-in-law of Patriarch Lin. She was afraid that those people would cause trouble again, so she went over to listen, but she didn't expect those people to be really bold.
