

Star of Space 739

Chapter 739: Don't be vague about what you say!

Swallowing, he tried to calm down and secretly told himself that since Lin Caisang could pull this black panther out, he would not hurt anyone casually.

"It's on the mountain. When I went to pick wild fruits on the mountain, I accidentally got lost and walked into the inner forest. Then I met Xiao Hei. I still relied on him to get out."

Lin Caisang curled his lips and talked nonsense.

It doesn't matter where the black panther came from, as long as it can suppress these ungrateful villagers.

"Grandpa Patriarch, you said that this black panther has no home and cannot stay with me every day. Otherwise, I would raise it on the barren mountain. Wouldn't you object?"

she asked Patriarch Lin.

Patriarch Lin twitched his lips.

What could he object to? Each of these people seemed to want to eat Lin Caisang alive. If he didn't order the amulet, he was really afraid that Lin Caisang would suffer a loss.

"This... Menghuang Mountain is yours. What you want to raise on it is naturally your decision."

"Clan Chief Lin, how is this possible? How can you raise... wild beasts in the village? That's... a leopard." As soon as Chief Lin finished speaking, someone immediately objected.

"Then everyone will raise a tiger, black bear, etc. from now on. How can Ansheng live in the village?"

"Why not?"

Patriarch Lin asked him a question in return.

"If you have the ability to raise her, then go ahead and raise her. I won't object."

He thought 'hehe' in his heart, what's Anshengzi? There is no Anshengzi in the village now. According to him, the Lin family used to be too kind to the people in the village, which made them feel a little bit indifferent.

"I....."

The man choked at Patriarch Lin's words and didn't know what to say.

He wants to raise her, but does he have the ability? If he raises a leopard, he is probably the leopard raising him, right? If one day he is eaten by a leopard, he will die in peace. He doesn't want to be that big-headed ghost!

"I heard that uncles and aunts have something to do with me. What's the matter? I'm here now. You can tell me." Lin Caisang looked at them and asked humbly for advice.

Everyone: "..."

Faced with a black panther that might bite them to death at any time, what else could they say?

"No one has anything to say?"

Seeing that none of them spoke, Lin Caisang sneered.

"Since everyone has nothing to say, I have a few words to say."

"You...what do you want to say?"

The stepfather's daughter-in-law plucked up the courage and asked Lin Caisang.

This little girl is really capable. She managed to impress everyone, thinking that this time she would be able to force Lin Caisang to tell her how to grow two crops of rice, and then everyone in the village would have to thank herself.

Little did she know that Lin Caisang, a black panther, would disrupt all her plans. How would she explain to her father-in-law when she returned home?

"What do I want to say?"

Lin Caisang raised his eyes and looked at her.

"My property on this barren mountain is registered with the government. If any of you dare to wander up the mountain without a good idea, or go to fetch water from the pond at the foot of the mountain, I will immediately go to the county government and file a complaint. I promise Officials will come to see you, and I, Lin Caisang, will do what I say!"

"you--"

Although everyone was angry after hearing what she said, they still couldn't do anything to her.

Menghuang Mountain belongs to Lin Caisang, and no one can blame Lin Caisang for this. They each have their own land, and they will not let others step in casually.