

Star of Space 74

Chapter 74 Little Fatty? !

Lin Caisang covered her mouth with a scream. She looked at the men and women who were turning their heads to look at her with an embarrassed look on her face, showing an apologetic smile.

When the common people saw that it was just a fat girl, they didn't say anything and continued to turn their heads and look at the reward notice.

"What kind of disease does the old man of the Zhong family have? There have been so many doctors here, but none of them can cure it. Could it be that he has attracted some evil spirits?"

"Who knows, although Mr. Zhong is a kind man and has done a lot of good things in the past years, I heard that the young master of the Zhong family has done a lot of dirty things. Maybe he has attracted some evil spirits."

"Don't talk nonsense. Doesn't the evil spirit have eyes and can't see? What does the bad thing done by Little Overlord Zhong have to do with the old man?"

The people were talking a lot, but Lin Caisang behind them was speechless and looked up at the sky.

"Brother Yujing, before you bring me here, can you tell me where this place is?" She really doesn't even know where this place is or what its name is. How is she going to treat people?

He lowered his head and sighed.

Now that we have come, we can't go back to Jinzhu Space to teach Yu Jing a lesson in front of so many people, right?

"Give way, give way, please give way."

The little chubby hand pushed aside the crowd and came to the reward notice. He looked at the flying fonts on it and took it off without caring about what was written.

"Hey, little girl, do you know what this is? This is a reward offered by the Zhong family to treat their old man's illness. What are you, a little girl, doing causing trouble? Why don't you put it up quickly?"

When the people saw that she had taken down the notice, they quickly reminded her.

"The notice cannot be revealed."

"Why can't you reveal it? Why don't you just find someone to treat him? Can't you just cure him?" Lin Caisang blinked and asked the person who spoke to her.

"Hey, little girl, you don't know." The man gave her a bitter look, shook his head and sighed.

"The old man Zhong is a kind man, but the little bully in his family is not a kind person. No young doctor has posted this notice these days, but if the old man's disease cannot be cured, who will not be beaten up by the little bully and thrown out? "

Little girl, you can't bear that pain. "

"It's okay. I'm thick-skinned and strong. What are you planning to do?" Lin Caisang smiled and didn't take the man's words seriously.

No matter how evil the bully is in front of her, he can only be obedient. After dealing with so many patients, how can he still be unable to deal with a little bully?

"You, little girl, why don't you listen to my advice? You really don't..."

"Give me a moment, I'll let you go!"

The man still wanted to persuade, but was interrupted by a arrogant voice not far behind him. When he heard the voice, he immediately shrank his stomach and hid aside. The other people also dispersed in a rush.

"You were the one who exposed the notice that my father just put up?" the person asked, squinting at Lin Caisang with a crooked neck and a crooked mouth.

Lin Caisang raised her eyes and looked up, but it turned out that it was a young man not much older than her. He just had a good face, but he turned into a clown after being twisted like this by himself.

It made her want to laugh.

"Yes, I revealed the list."

"The little fat guy is very courageous. Do you know how many people were beaten by the master until they cried for father and mother?" Zhong Xiaobawang raised his thumb and pointed at himself and asked Lin Caisang.

"fatty?!"

Upon hearing these three words, Lin Caisang's eyes flashed slightly and the corners of his mouth raised slightly.