

Star of Space 748

Chapter 748 What can you do to me?

It is really unimaginable that Liu Yushui would want to see her one day.

"Did she say why she wanted to see me?" she asked Lin Chushui.

Hearing this, Lin Chushui shook his head.

"I didn't say it, but from what I heard, it seemed to be related to the Zhou family." He said.

Originally, Liu Yushui wanted to see Sister Sang Sang, and there was no need for him to come and spread the word. But he also heard that Zhou Liang was getting married, and she was the daughter of the county governor. Sister Sang Sang must be worried about Changfeng at the moment. What's going to happen over there?

It happened that Liu Yushui wanted to see her at this time, and he thought that maybe he could go and see her.

Anyway, even if Liu Yushui said something that shouldn't be said, Sister Sang Sang could at most just listen to it, and there would be no loss. But if he really had something to do with cousin Changfeng, then if he didn't tell Sister Sang Sang, it would be his wrong.

"Is it related to the Zhou family?"

Lin Caisang frowned and exhaled heavily.

After being abandoned, Liu Yushui must have hated Zhou Liang and the Zhou family deeply, right? Do you want to use her now to find trouble for the Zhou family?

"Sister Sang Sang, do you want to see her?" Lin Chushui asked when she saw that she was silent.

"You go home, I'll go take a look."

No matter what Liu Yushui's purpose is, there is nothing wrong with listening to what she wants to say.

Liu Yushui wanted to use herself to deal with the Zhou family, and she... Zhou Liang was exactly what she wanted to deal with. Previously, she just felt that killing Zhou Liang and his family directly would be too easy for them.

"Shall I go with you?" Lin Chushui suggested uneasily.

How could it be possible to let Sister Sang Sang go to Liu Yushui's place alone? If grandpa and grandma knew about it, wouldn't they have to scrape off a layer of his skin?

"Need not."

Lin Caisang waved to him nonchalantly.

"What's the matter, do you still think Liu Yushui, a weak person, can do anything to me?"

If Lin Chushui is asked to follow, Liu Yushui may not be able to say some things to her so easily. I guess she wants to reveal all the scandalous things about the Zhou family, right?

Liu family.

Pushing the door open and going in, the inside was neatly tidied. I wonder if it was tidied by Lin Chushui or Liu Yushui himself.

Hearing something moving in the yard outside, Liu Yushui walked out of the kitchen and saw that it was Lin Caisang. He was stunned for a moment, but soon came to his senses and spoke to her.

"Just wait a moment, I'll be right away."

With that said, he went to the kitchen to fry the only dish, turned off the fire under the stove and came out.

The two of them sat in the main room, which had nothing but a table and two stools. On the table was the dish that Liu Yushui brought out from the kitchen.

"You're going to eat this?"

Looking at the pickles and steamed buns in the bowl, Lin Caisang asked her.

After all, Liu Yushui also wants to breastfeed her children. How can eating this food be nutritious?

"This is enough for me to eat." Liu Yushui smiled sheepishly and replied.

She also wanted to have a good meal, but the situation at home was like this. Because she was born prematurely, her milk supply was very low, and there was nothing at home to feed the two children.

She then begged Lin Chushui to go to the village and buy some white rice, and make rice cereal for the child to drink.

Naturally, she ate the ready-made food that was available at home before. The pickles were pickled by her mother before, and the cornmeal was something her father didn't bother to carry away when he ran away.

"You...don't you have money?" Lin Caisang asked.
