

Star of Space 752

Chapter 752 Do you really want to do this?

And all this is because Mrs. Zhou is not satisfied that she will have a daughter-in-law like Lin Caisang who comes from the countryside and is as fat as a pig.

"Now that the Zhou family has a marriage in the Sheriff's Mansion, no matter whether the daughter is good or bad, it is enough for them to use against Lin Changfeng."

After talking a lot, Liu Yushui finally said the key points.

In the past, she felt that Zhou Liang was heartless. She was mumbling in his ears how to deal with Lin Changfeng, but Zhou Liang pretended not to understand. But now that she understood what kind of person Zhou Liang was, she finally woke up.

It's not that Zhou Liang doesn't understand, but he has been waiting for her so that she can't wait any longer and goes to deal with Lin Changfeng by herself, and he can jump out of all her harmful methods and get rid of everything. What a beautiful thought.

Now, she can't count on Zhou Liang here, and she hasn't gotten married yet at the Sheriff's Mansion, so naturally it's impossible for her to tell others about her scandalous things.

Then Mrs. Zhou must do it herself.

"Then let them come, I'm waiting."

Lin Caisang chuckled and shrugged, his face not caring at all about what might happen to the Zhou family.

In Ye County, it is not just the county governor who covers the sky with one hand, but there are other officials as well. What's more, in Qiuwei, a major event that occurs once every three years, it is all handled by people sent by the superiors personally, and the county governor does not dare to deal with it blatantly. who.

As for dealing with Lin Changfeng secretly, there is no one on her side. Is she still afraid that Mrs. Zhou's hand will stretch out so long?

"If there's nothing else, I'll leave first."

She stood up and left.

Liu Yushui watched her leave with confusion on his face. He didn't understand what confidence Lin Caisang had. He didn't care at all about Mrs. Zhou's plans?

Does she still have something left behind?

"Huh, I don't have time to worry about Lin Cai, Mulberry and Lin Changfeng." He exhaled heavily.

If Zhou Liang really had his mind set on her two children, then she really wouldn't want to live.

She had thought about moving before and leaving Yacun, a place of right and wrong, but now she only had fifty taels of silver in her hand. How could she take her two children to live in another place again?

What's more, the entire Ye County is decided by the county governor alone. It is naturally impossible to deal with those big shots, but the daughter of the county governor wants to find her, a powerless person, and brings two A woman with children is still very simple.

Where could she escape to?

In fact, she knew in her heart that Lin Caisang's method was the best, to directly let the two children distance themselves from Zhou Liang.

"Do you really want to do this?" she asked herself.

If she really did that, her two daughters' lives in Yacun would be ordinary.

But if she didn't do that, it was not certain whether her two daughters would survive if they were raised in the lap of the county governor's daughter.

Gritting her teeth, she decided to do as Lin Caisang said. She had nothing left and was not afraid to risk everything. As long as she could survive, she could do anything.

Coming out of Liu Yushui's house, Lin Caisang was thinking about what to do next.

If it is true, as Liu Yushui said, that Mrs. Zhou's heart is not evil, and she will let others do any bad things, she is still the wife of the Zhou family, spotless, and she only needs to come out and finish it off at the right time.
