

Star of Space 755

Chapter 755 Can you be normal?

As she said that, she looked at Nangong Piao'er, the meaning in her eyes was obvious.

The identity of Nangong Piao'er and Beidou is also impossible to find out, because they are indeed from Ye County, they just fell into the big pit dug by Ya Molian when they were young, that's all.

"Yes, Mistress, I understand." Nangong Piao'er responded.

After being busy all day, it was not until almost early in the morning that Lin Caisang had time to enter the medicine garden space and take care of her flowers and plants.

"Yu Jing, do you have any tasks recently?"

She asked Yu Jing. To be honest, she really didn't have time to take on any tasks recently. She didn't know how to deal with the Zhou family's bad things, and it was impossible to kill them directly.

We can only wait and slowly accept their moves.

'There are two advanced tasks that can be chosen by you, the master. ' Two lines of characters appeared in the jade mirror.

"Two high-level tasks?"

Can you still choose? Is there such a good thing? impossible?

"What mission and where?" she asked.

'One is Jian'an City and the other is Shaohua City. ' Yu Jing said.

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

Can this task of cheating the master be more normal? I know that she really wants to go to Jian'an City to see her Huayuan Farm and her passion fruit shop.

However, Yamolian just went to Shaohua City. She was really worried and wanted to go there to have a look. This left her with no choice. She was asked to choose. Whichever she chose, she felt that it was a pity not to choose the other. ah.

"Show me both, what's going on," she said.

'In Jian'an City, the second prince was injured while hunting. He rolled down the hillside and was buried in the ruins, waiting for rescue. '

Lin Caisang: "..."

She is not a fire fighter, is this kind of rescue within the scope of her doctor? Is there any mistake?

"Is it seriously injured?" she asked.

'It was very serious, with minor injuries to the internal organs and three broken limbs. ' Two lines of characters appeared in the jade mirror.

"There is still hope." Lin Caisang said.

"But anyone can save such an injury. There are many imperial doctors in the palace, and they are not just freeloaders."

Where else is she needed?

‘Don’t dig into the ruins casually, as they will collapse.’

Lin Caisang: "???"

So, should we still let her do firefighting work?

"I don't understand why such a thing became a high-level task for me? Yu Jing, is this a fake task you're taking?" Is it possible that she is really asked to dig mountains and walls?

"Forget it, what about Shaohua City? What mission?"

she asked.

‘Suri, the son of Shaohua City’s imperial master, has been ill for a long time. Because of his many evil deeds, he was even poisoned. Master, all you need to do is to detoxify him.’ Yu Jing said.

Lin Caisang: "..."

What kind of rhythm is it to ask her to detoxify a person who has done many evil things?

All the settings in her golden bead space are to cure diseases and save people. If she is asked to detoxify an evildoer without curing his disease, does this mean that she will become the one who helps the evildoer, or does it mean that she will be eliminated? Evil promotes good.

Or is it to save all sentient beings and save evil people?

Now, does she even do what a Bodhisattva should do on her behalf?

"That guy won't die immediately after being poisoned, right?" she asked.

'I can hold on for ten days and a half. ' A line of words appeared in the jade mirror.

"That's good."

Lin Caisang nodded.

Since she can persist, let the evildoer persist for a few more days. She will first take over the task of building An City.
