

Star of Space 756

Chapter 756 I just know it anyway

After all, even if the second prince had offended her, they still knew each other, and this face still had to be sold. Even if he didn't sell his face, the eldest princess and the eldest prince still had to sell their face, right?

"Take over the task of building An City first," she said.

In a forest that should have been dark, many bright spots were moving. The guards were searching the forest with torches in their hands.

"Second Prince, Second Prince!"

The whole forest was filled with the shouts of the guards.

Lin Caisang, who had just come over when he heard the noise, couldn't help but frowned and let out a light tut.

"Look, keep looking for me, don't miss any corner." The prince was in the middle of the guards and shouted to everyone.

He shouldn't have let his second brother, who always knew how to cause trouble, go out hunting. This time, even he was hunted to the point where he didn't know where he was. He didn't know where he was going back to the camp all night.

"Second brother, where are you? Father calls you back. Come out quickly when you hear my voice!"

He didn't know that the second prince was in danger, and thought he was still playing around with them like before, so he shouted into the air, and the anger in his heart was growing.

"Second brother, if you don't come out..."

"Stop shouting."

A sharp shout interrupted the great prince's voice.

He turned around and looked at the source of the sound. When the light of the torch shone on Lin Caisang's face, he was stunned.

"Miss Lin, why are you here?"

This is a royal hunting ground, and ordinary people cannot enter. What's more, his father is in the hunting ground now. The place is surrounded by guards. How did she get in?

"I'm here to save people." Lin Caisang said angrily.

"Save people? Who to save?" the great prince asked.

Was anyone injured in the hunting grounds? The person who can make Miss Lin take action must not be a small person, it must be...

Suddenly, he looked at Lin Caisang with wide eyes.

"Miss Lin, you mean my second brother...he...he..."

Now the only one in this hunting ground who dares to disappear to show them is his playful second brother. Could it be that he was injured and Lin Caisang came here to save him?

"Your Majesty, time is running out. Hurry up and bring out all the hounds you brought. They should be able to smell the smell of blood. If my prediction is correct, the Second Prince should have accidentally stumbled while hunting. He was somewhere. It's buried somewhere."

Lin Caisang didn't have time to chat with the eldest prince, so he directly explained his purpose of coming, which also showed that the second prince was in a really dangerous situation.

"What?!"

The prince was shocked when he heard her words.

"Miss Lin, you...how did you know?"

Although at this time, he should believe Lin Caisang's words both emotionally and rationally. After all, his second brother's life cannot be compromised.

However, this Miss Lin is really weird. She can casually tell her that her second brother is in danger, but she doesn't know where her second brother is at the moment? This point had to make him suspicious.

"You don't care how I know it, I just know it anyway." Lin Caisang yelled at him.

"Speaking of which, do you still have time to care about how I know this? You don't want the second prince's life?"

"This pair."

After being reminded by her, the eldest prince finally came to his senses and turned to look at the guards.

"Why are you still standing there? Why don't you go get the hounds? Others will continue to look for them." He ordered.
