

Star of Space 759

Chapter 759 That is simply... a trap!

"Brother, please don't move these stones. It may affect your whole body. If you hurt Xiao'er again, you and I will regret it. []"

"this....."

The emperor was frightened by her words and broke out in a cold sweat. He nodded repeatedly. He was too anxious just now and forgot the current environment when he spoke.

"Then what should we do? These stones must be moved away. Xiao'er is still inside."

"You want to move, but you have to think carefully about how to move." The eldest princess said.

Lin Caisang looked at them and listened to their words, feeling secretly speechless.

When they figure out how to move, they will move out the stones bit by bit and rescue the people... who else can they save? The day lilies should be cold, and the people should bleed to death, right?

"How about we dig a hole into the ground?" she suggested.

Hearing her voice, the emperor and the eldest princess realized that Lin Caisang was also there, and they both looked at her at the same time.

"Sang...Miss Lin, are you here?" The eldest princess opened his mouth and changed the title in time.

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded.

"Miss Lin, what you just said about digging a hole to go in, will you not be able to find the right direction?" the eldest prince asked.

This is really the best way, but where the second brother is, only the white fox knows. How can it be so simple to dig a hole in from the outside?

No matter how many people they have and how powerful they are, they can't stop digging in the wrong place.

"This is it."

Lin Caisang lowered his head and looked at the little white fox in his hand.

"I heard that white foxes can dig holes, can you?"

arctic fox:"!!!"

Master, don't you see that my whole body is as white as snow, and you have the heart to let me turn into a mud fox? !

Besides, they foxes can't dig holes that fast. If they have to dig a hole to rescue a person, that's just... a trap for a fox!

"You and your wife dig a small hole from the inside. Hurry up. Then, eldest prince, you can lead someone to dig in from the outside. In this way, you can dig along the small hole dug by the white fox and know exactly where the second prince is. , although the time will be slower, it is much easier than moving rocks, and there is less danger of landslides. "

As she spoke, she took out another white fox from her small satchel and released the two white foxes directly.

The Great Prince: "..."

His eyes focused on the small bag on Lin Caisang's waist. He really couldn't figure out why Lin Caisang was able to carry two of them out of such a small satchel. The white fox is coming?

Could it be that this small satchel is still a treasure, and the contents inside may be big or small?

However, now is not the time to think about this. His second brother is still buried under the rubble and needs to be rescued quickly.

Taking a deep breath, he nodded heavily to Lin Caisang.

Two white foxes were raised in the pasture space. They were naturally different from the white foxes outside. The speed of digging holes was also extraordinary, and the guards were also very fast. After an hour and a half, the second prince was dragged out of the hole by the guards. out.

"Be careful, be careful."

The eldest princess stood outside the cave, watching the second prince being dragged out, and looking at his bloody appearance, her heart almost broke.

At Lin Caisang's request, time was tight, so the hole was dug very small, and only two people could crawl in and out. Therefore, the guards could only drag the second prince out, which shows how embarrassed he was.

At this moment, the second prince has been in a coma for a long time.
