Chapter 764 Congratulations, you have obtained a hidden mission

That was what she gave as an extra gift to the Second Prince, so he could treat it.

In other words, such a simple task as treating an internal injury or repairing a broken bone is actually classified as a high-level task?

Is it a little too simple?

"Yu Jing, tell me, when can I get the points for this task?" she asked Yu Jing.

'Dear master, congratulations, you have obtained a hidden mission.'

Two lines of words were displayed in the jade mirror, which made Lin Caisang almost vomit blood.

"What? Hidden...what is a hidden mission?"

She stared at the words on the jade mirror, and her voice was trembling and angry.

She was just thinking about how such a simple task could be a high-level task, but she never thought that after this simple high-level task, there would be hidden tasks.

"What is a hidden mission?" she asked Yu Jing.

'Hidden mission: Trigger-based mission. After accepting the mission, there is a one-thousandth chance of triggering the hidden mission, which is determined randomly. The goal of each mission is to teach and educate people.'

A long string of characters appeared in the jade mirror.

Teach and educate people!

"I'm not a teacher. What kind of books do I teach and what kind of people do I educate?!!!"

She almost wanted to scream to the sky, why is there such a weird setting? This is the rhythm of wanting her to be a teacher!

However, she is studying medicine. She is studying medicine. What kind of book does she teach?

"Then what is the hidden mission this time?"

Taking a deep breath, and with the mentality of "get it as soon as it comes, I'll make peace with it", she asked Jade Mirror.

'This hidden mission: a primary knowledge book for one person in the church; mission time: ten days; mission failure punishment: raging fire. '

Lin Caisang: "..."

Is this the rhythm that forces her to die?

"What the hell are elementary knowledge books?"

Where can she get some elementary knowledge? What kind of situation is this?

She was very busy. The second prince was still waiting for her to 'serve' him every day. Now another hidden mission was triggered. What kind of basic knowledge was he teaching?

As soon as she asked her question, several jade books appeared in front of her.

He stretched out his hand to fish it out, took all the jade books into his hands, and opened one to read.

"You really want me to die. What are these things? Who am I to teach you?"

In the jade book, there are many flowers, plants, and pictures recorded, and they are actually in color. I opened another book and took a closer look...

"Flowers...jewellery...medicine...animals...fuck, there are so many things, who is so capable that he can learn them in ten days? Do you think everyone in this world is a genius like me?" ?"

Jade Realm: "..."

Dear master, when you are boasting, can you avoid me? I won't be able to bear it.

"Forget it, I'd better copy them down first."

Of course it was impossible to go outside with this jade book. She could only copy everything in the jade book. Fortunately, she was very good at drawing. For her, these pictures were really within her reach.

Now that the hidden tasks had been triggered and it was impossible not to do them, she had better think about who she should find to learn these things.

Her eldest brother? Douda hasn't learned a lot of Chinese characters yet, and besides, he's not interested in the flowers and plants.

Brother Changfeng? What's worse, he is going to take the exam soon, but she sees him holding that book every day even when eating. How can she waste her time reading these things?
