

Star of Space 767

Chapter 767 It's all just air

"But....."

"No buts.

Lin Caisang didn't want to hear what Lin Chushui said at all, but if possible, she didn't want Lin Chushui to carry these things, but it was impossible not to carry them, she had to hand in the task.

Besides, she didn't think it was bad for Lin Chushui to learn these things.

On the contrary, it can make Lin Chushui understand a lot of things.

"I still have things to do. Remember, your task for these ten days is to memorize four books. You don't have to do anything else. I will ask my brother to bring lunch to Brother Changfeng and me."

Lin Chushui: "..."

Is he going to study hard like his cousin Changfeng?

"All right."

Although he really didn't want to agree, Sister Sangsang at this moment made him feel that if he dared not agree, she would fall out with him immediately, so he should hurry up and memorize this book.

"Well, that's pretty much it."

Seeing him nodding, Lin Caisang also nodded with satisfaction.

"Chu Shui, Sister Sang Sang will not harm you. There will be many books like this for you to memorize in the future, but it will definitely be beneficial for you to learn these things. You will help Sister Sang Sang in the future. , you must learn more knowledge. Well, maybe these things will be beneficial to you when you find your family in the future."

she said.

"Really?"

Lin Chushui looked up at her and asked seriously.

He was really not interested in finding his family. That family already had a fake son, and they had known each other since childhood. How could they suspect that the fake son was not theirs?

However, if learning these things is helpful to Sister Sangsang, then he will definitely finish it.

"Of course it's true. When did Sister Sangsang lie to you?" Lin Caisang smiled and asked him.

The things that come out of the Golden Pearl Space, even if you just learn them casually, are enough to brag and show off in the future. How could they be useless?

"You study hard, I have something else to do." After saying that, she left again.

The Second Prince should be awake now, right? She had to go over quickly and take a look, lest he break the bones she had finally connected again. .

Among the royal hunting grounds.

As Lin Caisang expected, the second prince had already woken up.

But as soon as he woke up, he felt bursts of pain coming from his limbs and bones. The pain was so painful that he wanted to die. However, even though he was young, he was still a prince and the second prince of the Liang Kingdom.

Since the pain was so painful that he wanted to die, and the pain was so painful that cold sweat broke out all over his body, he could still endure it.

"Auntie, what's wrong with me?"

He looked angrily at the people aside, it was his father, his eldest brother and his aunt.

emperor:"....."

The Great Prince: "..."

Even after hearing the sound and knowing that their son and brother were okay, their worried hearts were relieved.

However, after listening to his words, they were really angry and wanted to beat him up.

With their biological father and their biological eldest brother standing here, they are nothing but air. This boy only has eyes for the eldest princess sitting far away. Is she his biological aunt?

The two people in front of them asked the eldest princess instead of asking. The difference made them so angry that they wanted to vomit a mouthful of blood.

"Xiao'er, are you awake?"

The eldest princess heard his voice and came over quickly.

After checking him carefully, he let out a sigh of relief.

"Huh, you're finally awake. Auntie is worried to death."

"Auntie, what's wrong with me?" the second prince asked again.
