

Star of Space 768

Chapter 768 Have you forgotten everything?

He remembered that he met a dark figure in the woods. He didn't see clearly what kind of prey it was, but he just felt that it was running very fast. As he chased it, he felt that his head felt heavy, and then he didn't know anything else. .

Could it be that he was attacked.

"You kid, you're running around with nothing to do. It's really unsettling. As soon as your royal brother didn't keep an eye on you, you started causing trouble everywhere. It's better now. It almost cost you your own life. Look at you. Don't you dare to mess around again!"

When the emperor saw that he was awake, he couldn't help but start talking.

"That's right, second brother, there are dangers everywhere in this hunting ground. Why don't you bring more guards with you when you go out?" The eldest prince also followed him.

"If you hadn't been lucky enough to meet Miss Lin this time and rescued you, you would have died in the pile of rocks. In your current condition, your mother would not be able to return to the palace. Fainted from crying?"

"Queen mother..."

Thinking of his mother and queen in the palace, the second prince felt that the injuries on his body no longer hurt, but his head began to hurt.

His eldest brother was right. If the queen mother knew that he was injured, the consequences would be even more disastrous than if he was injured. The queen mother would definitely cry until he could not be free and would be trapped in the palace every day.

"Okay, he just woke up now, so don't talk about him anymore."

The eldest princess looked at the two father and son, then at the second nephew lying on the bed, and said a word for him.

"Feng'er, didn't Miss Lin say that he needs to drink medicine when he wakes up? Hurry up and order someone to bring it."

"Well, okay, I'll get it right away."

The eldest prince nodded and immediately turned around and went out to get the medicine.

"Is the person awake?"

Outside the tent, the sound of Lin Caisang came.

"Miss Lin, are you here? My second brother has just woken up." The great prince's voice also sounded.

"Okay, let me go in and take a look."

As soon as the voice fell, the emperor and the eldest princess saw Lin Caisang walking in with a pair of rabbit eyes.

"Miss Lin..."

The eldest princess looked at her and looked like she was worried about staying up all night. She couldn't help but want to express concern for her, but she interrupted her.

"Does he have a fever?"

Lin Caisang walked to the second prince's bedside, put his hand on his forehead and took the temperature.

"Fortunately, it seems that the Second Prince's physique has always been well maintained. Even though he was so seriously injured, he did not have a fever." She breathed a sigh of relief and looked at the emperor and the eldest princess again.

"Your Majesty, have you invited other imperial doctors to diagnose the second prince's pulse?"

"No."

The emperor shook his head.

Although he had doubts about Lin Caisang, he had to say that he really admired Lin Caisang's medical skills.

His son is now injured like this. Except for Lin Caisang, no imperial doctor believes him at this moment. Those old guys don't look at how much they brag on weekdays, but when they really meet the real ones, each of them just You will say you are incompetent!

Wherever she is like Lin Caisang, it is easy to say that she saves people and saves people.

Lin Caisang: "..."

She has been coming and going from home for more than three hours, right?

This emperor actually didn't even invite an imperial doctor. Is this a sign of trust in her, or is it a lack of trust in her? Or maybe, because I was so worried about my son's danger, I forgot everything?

"Then the emperor should invite an imperial physician to come. The Second Prince's injury must be attended by an imperial physician at all times. It is impossible for me to stay here to look after him. There are some things that I still need to explain to the imperial physician. "

"good."

The emperor nodded and went to the door to give instructions.
