Chapter 778 Too many bad things have been done

'yes.

Yujing answered her with one word.

Looking at the words above, Lin Caisang took a deep breath.

"Not today, let's do it tomorrow. I'll take over the task tomorrow morning." She thought for a while and said.

Jian'an City was a place she was familiar with, and it was in the Liang Kingdom. She could do whatever she wanted, but Shaohua City was different. When she got there, she was not familiar with the place.

She had to get to know him first. As for who to find out about, she had already decided.

The next day, early in the morning.

Shaohua City and Jian'an City are indeed very different.

Obviously when they were in Liang State, they only needed to wear thin clothes, but it was slightly cool at night, but when they arrived in Shaohua City, the people had already put on thick clothes, and the cold wind blew on their faces like knives.

"Ziyou, it's really not that cold here."

Lin Caisang turned her head and glanced at the girl next to her who also wore a mask, Sui Ziyou.

"Shaohua City is also the coldest place in Weiguo." Sui Ziyou answered her.

He raised his hand, took Lin Caisang's wrist, and walked into another alley.

"Sister-in-law, do you really want to go to the Imperial Preceptor's Mansion? It's a dangerous place there. Once you go in, you never come out again. The Imperial Preceptor's son is even more cruel by nature."

She couldn't understand how her sister-in-law could take on such a task?

To save Su Ri? She would rather save a dog on the street than save that damn bastard Su Ri.

"I've accepted all the tasks, and I can't regret it." Lin Caisang shrugged and said.

She thought that the mission that Jinzhu Space accepted must have Jinzhu's intention. He would not accept the mission for her casually. Besides, since everyone was already here, there was no reason to regret it.

I can't regret it anymore.

"call."

Sui Zi breathed out a sigh of relief.

"Okay, I'll take you outside the Imperial Master's Mansion," she said.

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded and followed Sui Ziyou to the Imperial Preceptor's Mansion.

...

Outside the Imperial Master's Mansion, it is not an exaggeration to describe it as being heavily guarded.

Lin Caisang looked up and saw only one word on the plaque above the closed door, solemn!

"Is the Imperial Master's Office always so vigilant?" she asked Sui Ziyu with a sideways glance.

"There have been many bad things done, and there are many enemies. If the emperor hadn't sent a large number of royal guards, this Imperial Preceptor's Mansion would have been razed to the ground by the enemies." Sui Zi snorted coldly and explained.

This little guard at the door is nothing. My sister-in-law has never seen the formation of the national preceptor Suyang when he travels, and the emperor never takes so many people with him when he travels.

There's nothing I can do, I'm afraid of death.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang just shrugged.

"Tell me, if I go in directly, will they search me and take away all my belongings?" she asked.

"This... for sure!" Sui Zi nodded quietly and said.

The people in the Imperial Master's Office are very domineering. My sister-in-law is definitely going to be bullied when she is new here.

"It will definitely happen... Then I have to get ready." Lin Caisang raised his hand and touched his chin and said.

Half an hour later, Lin Caisang and Sui Ziyu stood in front of the Imperial Preceptor's Mansion, still dressed as before.

But unlike half an hour ago, this time, they attracted a lot of attention. Even the guards of the Imperial Prefect's Mansion looked at Lin Caisang and the two of them with caution, as well as...

The black panther following them.

"Who are these two people? How dare you take a leopard for a walk outside the Imperial Preceptor's Mansion without fear of being arrested?"
