Chapter 78 Those sidekicks are only suitable for killing people

This is his son. He is naturally happy when someone praises him.

"Really? It's even rarer to be self-taught." Lin Caisang glanced at Zhong You meaningfully and took the silver needle bag in his hand.

At this moment, Zhong You, who was a head taller than Lin Caisang, was also sizing her up. When he saw her eyes glancing towards him, he immediately lowered his head and looked obedient and sensible.

Open the silver needle bag, take out one, and start acupuncture for Mr. Zhong.

"Mr. Zhong, please send someone with pen and ink." She said without raising her eyes.

"I go....."

"No, Mr. Zhong should just watch here. After all, he is a self-taught person, so there will eventually be something wrong. It is also a good time to see how a serious doctor performs acupuncture to save people.

Before Zhong You finished speaking, he was interrupted by Lin Caisang.

He was startled, and his eyes staring at Lin Caisang's back suddenly became cruel, and the surroundings were full of anger. He wanted to snatch the silver needle from her hand and stab her to death!

Master Zhong didn't feel anything. He thought it was Lin Caisang who wanted to teach his son, so he went out to give instructions.

"Mr. Zhong You, if this piercing point is slightly wrong, it will kill someone. These days, you have been practicing the strength of your hands on Mr. Zhong a lot, right?"

While Lin Caisang was giving Mr. Zhong acupuncture to save his life, he spoke to Zhong You behind him.

"How did you tell?"

Zhong You lowered his voice and questioned Lin Caisang with anger and hatred.

So many doctors came in response to the notice, but no one could tell that he was the one doing it, because he did it so skillfully that no one could catch any mistakes, and his grandfather would always stay asleep like this.

He thought that what he had done would never be discovered.

But unexpectedly, an opponent came today and ruined his plan.

"Is this difficult?"

Lin Caisang chuckled and asked him.

"If you don't want others to know, you have to do nothing yourself. You think your acupuncture technique can be better than anyone else, but you forget an old saying."

"What words?"

Zhong You narrowed his eyes and asked coldly.

"There are people outside the world, and there is a sky outside the world." Lin Caisang said.

After saying that, she moved her hand, put a few silver needles back into the silver needle bag, stood up and looked at him.

"I would like to advise you, this pack of silver needles is not suitable for you. If I hadn't come here today, you would have been a murderer of your relatives. If you apply another needle with your method, the old man's life will be ruined in your hands.

Those side disciples you learned are only suitable for killing people. "

"you....."

Zhong You still wanted to speak, but when he heard footsteps coming towards the room, he immediately fell silent and turned to look at his father.

"Girl, how is my old man doing?"

Master Zhong asked anxiously when he saw that she had stood up.

"It's okay for now, and he will wake up soon." Lin Caisang said.

"Do you have a pen and ink ready? I will write a prescription and use this prescription to prepare a dose of medicine for the old man to take every day. In less than half a year, he will be able to recover, but..."

She turned her head and glanced at Zhong You coldly.

"Master Ling's medical skills are self-taught, and some conveniences must be missing. In my opinion, Mr. Zhong should find a famous teacher for him to study under, and learn the medical skills well first. In these days, it is better not to worry about the old master anymore. Worry."

She said meaningfully.

Naturally, she wouldn't say anything about these intrigues in the inner courtyard of the house, and she had no right to question them. She was just a person who treated illnesses and performed tasks.
