

Star of Space 781

Chapter 781 Come and welcome us back

"National Master, now King Mo has just returned to Shaohua City, and he has some opinions about you. If you attack others at this moment, I am afraid that King Mo will seize your excuse and report you to the emperor.

"Aren't our masters still afraid of him?"

Suyang was so angry that he twisted his mouth, and when he mentioned this King Mo, he felt even more unhappy.

What King Mo is, just an unimportant chess piece that was abandoned at a young age, and is he worthy of being feared? If His Majesty didn't still have a need for him, how could he be allowed to be so arrogant in Shaohua City?

"Master, please be careful, King Mo is favored now." Ke Qing reminded Su Yang.

Who made the emperor's favorite Prince Lin foolishly risk his life and go to Baibind Mountain, only to never see his return? At this moment, the emperor was thinking about asking King Mo to go to Baibind Mountain to bring King Lin back.

At this time, whoever dares to offend King Mo would be tantamount to hitting the muzzle of a gun.

Hearing this, Su Yang took a deep breath and almost spit out a mouthful of blood. Why is King Mo so favored? It was obvious that the emperor had something to ask him to do.

But at the same time, he also knew that if he really had trouble with King Mo at this moment, causing King Mo to make an excuse not to go to Baibind Mountain, then he would really be pushing himself towards death.

The emperor can do anything for the sake of the king.

"Damn bastards, let them live a few more days!" He tossed his robe and spoke coldly.

...

In one of the most luxurious restaurants in Shaohua City, Sui Ziyou and Lin Caisang were sitting by the window on the second floor. Opposite Sui Ziyou, Lin Caisang was eating meat.

"Sister-in-law, I don't understand, why did you leave, why don't you treat Suri?"

Although she also felt that Su Ri deserved to die, so why did she need her sister-in-law to treat him? He should have been allowed to die.

However, isn't my sister-in-law the one who received the mission? If she goes like this, wouldn't the mission be over if it fails?

"I didn't say it wouldn't be cured."

Lin Caisang raised his eyes, glanced at Sui Ziyou, and shook his head.

"Ziyou, you want to eat too, aren't you hungry?"

"Hungry."

Suizi Youdao.

But she had doubts in her heart. No matter how hungry she was, she still felt that the food in front of her was not to her liking.

"If we want to treat it, why should we leave?"

"Eat with confidence, people from the Imperial Master's Office will come to welcome us back later."

Lin Caisang smiled, put a few slices of beef into Sui Ziyu's bowl, and asked her to eat it with confidence. How could she give up halfway?

The people in the National Preceptor's Office are really different from the people who just wanted to seek medical treatment in the past. They all ask for 25,000 to 80,000 yuan. If she doesn't teach them a lesson, they won't even know a word.

It's called: There are mountains outside the mountains, and there are people outside the people!

"Um?"

Sui Ziyu frowned and looked at Lin Caisang in confusion, but soon, she suddenly understood.

"Sister-in-law, have you poisoned Suyang?"

She just said, how could her sister-in-law leave just as she said, she must have some back-ups.

"What kind of poison did you poison? There is also a doctor in the Imperial Prefect's Office. What if he detoxifies the poison?" she asked.

"Aren't you worried about what I'm doing?" Lin Caisang laughed again.

The person who can detoxify her is probably not born yet. That Suyang will soon be crying and begging her to come and cure his son's illness.

"Eat quickly, otherwise it will be too late."

When those people come to visit, they won't have time to eat these delicacies.
