

Star of Space 795

Chapter 795 Interesting little girl

"You, Xiaohei, let's go.

After he had beaten enough and was out of breath, Lin Caisang took Sui Ziyu and Black Panther carelessly, turned around and left.

"wait wait wait."

When Suyang heard that they were leaving, he lay down on the ground and called Lin Caisang to stop him, regardless of his injuries.

"Why, haven't you been beaten enough?" Lin Caisang turned around, looked at him, and asked viciously.

Suyang: "!!!"

All the lessons he learned in this life fell on Lin Caisang.

So he decided that he would never use Lin Caisang as a backer in the future, let alone go against her, because it would never end well.

"Girl, you said before that tomorrow will..."

"Of course, I always keep my word. I'll wait for you tomorrow morning." Lin Caisang rolled her eyes at him, turned around and left.

Outside the Imperial Master's Mansion, everyone stared blankly at Lin Caisang and the others leaving without reacting at all. Even Dou Qiankuo and several guards who came forward to help were shocked by the scene just now.

In Weiguo, even the emperor did not dare to touch Su Yang, but that little girl actually beat the majestic national master Su Yang all over his face.

This is not the most important thing. The most important thing is that Su Yang was beaten to the point of losing his dignity in front of the servants. They actually found that he was not angry, but was slightly afraid of the little woman.

This...what's going on?

"Funny little girl."

In another carriage, the man watched Lin Caisang and the others leaving and just uttered two words.

Dou Qiankuo, who had just returned to the carriage: "..."

Master, are you sure that girl just now was just 'interesting'? Why does he feel like his hair is standing on end all the time?

That girl was so terrifying. Even his master, Suyang, who dared not touch him for the time being, was actually beaten into an obedient kitten by her? Where did such a character come from?

"You, you are familiar with this place, tell me how to inquire about your brother?" After leaving the Imperial Master's Mansion, Lin Caisang and Sui Ziyou settled down in another place.

The black panther has been sent to the pasture space by Lin Caisang.

"this....."

Sui Ziyou was immediately embarrassed when he heard her words.

"Sister-in-law, I'm actually not familiar with Shaohua City."

"Huh? Haven't you always lived in Shaohua City?" Lin Caisang was confused.

"I live in Shaohua City, but I'm just a useful chess piece in the family. And I'm a woman. My behavior is very restricted on weekdays. It's even more impossible to go out to do things."

Sui Ziyou said.

"And sister-in-law, you should know that I have been in poor health before, which gave my family even more reason to trap me at home without freedom. In these years, I have almost never walked on the streets of Shaohua City. It's the first time."

Listening to her words, Lin Caisang couldn't help but shook his head.

I really can't imagine what kind of life a girl from a wealthy family leads, even a little girl from the countryside like her.

"Then where do you think your brother will be?" she asked.

"My brother must be in Prince Mo's Mansion." Sui Ziyou said.

"Prince Mo's Mansion?"

Lin Caisang looked at Sui Ziyou and blinked.

"Is this the Prince Mo's Mansion that the people are talking about?"

After entering Shaohua City, what she heard most was the news about King Mo's sudden return to Shaohua City. Rumors...

"King Mo, is this Brother Mo Lian?"

She suddenly understood that King Mo, the cold-blooded, cruel and unscrupulous King who was said by the people to bring endless disasters to the country, was actually her Brother Mo Lian.
