Chapter 796 The best at using uncompromising means

"How could they say that about Brother Mo Lian? What did he do wrong? It's just..."

She said half of what she said and couldn't continue. The common people just listened to the rumors and added fuel to the rumors. In fact, it was just ignorance.

"Sister-in-law, you don't need to pay attention to these words. They should all be spread deliberately from the palace. None of the people in the harem want Brother Mo's good. They are all insidious and cunning people."

When she mentioned the villains in the palace, she felt angry and wished she could rush into the palace and teach those people a lesson.

Unfortunately, she knew that she didn't have the ability.

"Now that King Lin has not been found, they must want Brother Mo to bring King Lin back. One by one, they only know how to use people and do not regard Brother Mo as a relative at all.

"Oh, it's not just that I don't regard Brother Mo Lian as a relative." Lin Caisang sneered.

Those people probably didn't regard Brother Mo Lian as a human being at all, he was just a chess piece that could be used.

Moreover, on the one hand, those people wanted to take advantage of Brother Mo Lian. On the other hand, after Brother Mo Lian became stronger step by step, they were afraid that Brother Mo Lian would turn against them, so they kept setting traps for Brother Mo Lian.

There is no need to talk about family affection when dealing with such a person.

"Sister-in-law, should we go directly to Brother Mo?" Sui Ziyu asked.

"no!"

Lin Caisang shook his head without even thinking about it.

She only needs to know that Brother Mo Lian has arrived here safely. She doesn't want Brother Mo Lian to know that she has come to Shaohua City, let alone that she has entered the Imperial Master's Mansion.

Kyoto, no matter which country it is in, is a place in dire straits.

She didn't want Brother Mo Lian to worry about her, and she didn't want others to know that she knew Brother Mo Lian.

"Why?"

Sui Ziyou asked confusedly.

"You came to Shaohua City, didn't you just come to see Brother Mo?" she asked.

"Of course not." Lin Caisang shook his head.

"No?" Sui Ziyou frowned.

"You, I came to Shaohua City not to cause trouble to Brother Mo Lian." Lin Caisang looked at Sui Ziyou seriously and said.

"I beat up Su Yang outside the Imperial Preceptor's residence before. Now our reputation is growing in Shaohua City. Many people know that I posted a notice and came to treat Su Ri. At this time, If we go to King Mo's Mansion to find King Mo, wouldn't we tell everyone that I am here to treat Brother Mo Lian? "

This alone will bring endless trouble to Yamolian.

"Never mind this, Brother Mo Lian has just come back, and two women immediately come to him. What will the people in the palace think? Do they think these two women are the ones Ya Mo Lian likes? Those people are worried that they have no chance to take advantage of Brother Mo Lian. If we come here at this time, wouldn't we give them a chance to take advantage of Brother Mo Lian.

The people in the palace are best at using unscrupulous means. "

"Sister-in-law, what you mean is that if we appear in front of everyone, they will harm us at all costs?"

Sui Ziyu finally realized this. She had never thought of this before. If they really came to visit, they would probably become a burden to her cousin.

"That's not all. If Brother Mo sends people to protect us again, and there are no guards around him, those people will have more opportunities to take advantage of."

she said again.

Lin Caisang nodded.

"So, what we have to do is to watch in secret and help Brother Mo Lian at the appropriate time, instead of coming directly to the door now to disrupt Brother Mo Lian's plan."
