Chapter 798 Comparing Zhou Liang with Brother Mo Lian?

"Can you not be angry? Everyone in the Zhou family really has dog eyes!" Lin Changhong said.

As the saying goes, dogs look down on others, and they are talking about families like the Zhou family, right? He has no skills at all, but he still thinks that he is a great person, and he is not afraid of losing face when he goes outside.

However, this week the Zhou family has lost their face outside, so they really have nothing to fear!

"I thought I was so great. Sister, just wait. I want to see if Zhou Liang fails in this subject, how will the Zhou family gain a foothold in Qianlin County!"

"If Zhou Liang can pass the exam, will the Zhou family still talk to us?" Lin Caisang asked his eldest brother.

"What do you mean?"

Lin Changhong was stunned for a moment when he heard his sister's words.

But soon, he figured it out, his black eyes narrowed dangerously, and smoke was almost coming out of his head.

"Okay, this is the shameless thing of this family. It turns out that this is the idea! I was just thinking, Mrs. Zhou didn't like you before. Now that the two families are in this trouble, how can you still do it? Dare to come to our Lin family!

It turns out that I want to take advantage of you! "

Is it so easy to take advantage of his girl? If he, Zhou Liang, wants to rely on Sangsang's luck and pass the exam, he has to see if the Lin family agrees, right?

"Does this family really think that our Lin family has no one?"

"Ah!"

Lin Caisang sneered.

She didn't care whether there was anyone in the Lin family, but in the Zhou family, Mrs. Zhou must have felt that her son was about to marry the county governor's daughter. From now on, she would be the county governor's in-laws, and the Zhou family would also be in trouble. Already?

"Brother, what did they say?"

"It is said that the Zhou family will come to propose marriage in two days. Let us wait and see." Lin Changhong took a deep breath and said.

"Sister, you said that the Zhou family is all a family, how can they be so thick-skinned? It's amazing, even I have to admire the Zhou family, they are so awesome! What are your next plans? " he asked.

"The Zhou family wants to come to propose marriage, then let them do it." Lin Caisang said calmly.

"What?"

Lin Changhong was shocked when he heard this.

"Sister, you can't think so hard. Zhou Liang, that scumbag, can't even compare to Brother Mo Lian. Even if Brother Mo Lian leaves now, he will definitely come back soon. You can't..."

"Are you comparing Zhou Liang to Brother Molian?"

Lin Caisang glanced at his eldest brother and asked.

If the man in front of her hadn't been her brother, she would have kicked him out of the yard.

"Well."

Lin Changhong choked at his sister's words and suddenly looked a little embarrassed. He also thought that his family Sang Sang would never have anything to do with that scumbag Zhou Liang.

"Look at my bad mouth. Girl, what are you going to do?"

"Isn't the Zhou family coming to propose marriage? Just in time, doesn't the third aunt raise a few pigs? Let the Zhou family choose one." Lin Caisang said.

Lin Changhong: "!"

His sister, is your move too cruel? People in the Zhou family are actually not kind.

Should we... take it easy for a while?

"Sangsang..."

"Didn't you say you'd come the day after tomorrow? I happen to be free the day after tomorrow, and I want to talk to the head of the Lin clan about digging the pond. Let's invite several elders from the Lin clan and the Ya clan to the house, and let's talk while we eat. Son."

Just when Lin Changhong was about to say something else, Lin Caisang said again.
