Chapter 799 Don't invite me in to sit for a while

"Okay, that's what you do." Lin Changhong nodded.

This week, the family should also learn a lesson, otherwise, they would think that they can dominate Qianlin County, and they would dare to step on anyone's head!

"I'm going to discuss this matter with Grandpa and the others. It's not good for us to just have the final say."

However, whenever Sangsang made up his mind, Grandpa and Grandma would not disagree. What's more, this time it was the Zhou family who came to bully the family, so they had to suffer it for no reason.

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded.

The next day, Lin Caisang went to the royal hunting ground again and saw the second prince who was able to talk and laugh despite the pain. He came back soon and went directly to Shaohua City.

Outside the gate of the Imperial Preceptor's Mansion, the Imperial Preceptor Su Yang, who was beaten with a bruised nose and face the day before, was standing outside the residence at the moment, looking at the people passing by with his head raised.

Of course, since he appeared outside the mansion, no one dared to go to the street outside the Imperial Master's mansion.

Because they were afraid that Su Yang would go crazy and have them killed, it was not the first time for anyone to see the Imperial Master being beaten to the point where his parents didn't even recognize him. Especially, even if Su Yang was beaten to the point where his parents didn't even recognize him, Su Yang You still have to go out and wait for the little witch in person.

"Steward Xin, why hasn't this person come yet?" After a long time, Suyang finally became impatient and asked Steward Xin beside him.

At this moment, Butler Xin also had a cold sweat on his face, because he was really not sure whether Lin Caisang would come again. When she left yesterday, even though she promised to come again.

But... God knows.

"Sir, please wait a moment, wait a moment." He said carefully.

If this happened to someone else, who dared to make him wait like this, he would have gotten angry long ago and killed that person directly, if not to death, at least to a half-dead state.

But this time he had to wait, it was his son's life-saving medicine!

No matter how angry he was, he had to wait. If he didn't wait, it would mean that he would have no descendants. Can he wait?

"Okay, wait a moment." He said after taking a deep breath.

Time passed bit by bit, and finally, when Suyang was about to lose his temper, Lin Caisang and Sui Ziyou came over leisurely, and each of them held a bunch of candied haws. It was delicious and delicious.

"Master, what are you waiting for?" When he came to Su Yang, Lin Caisang just glanced at him lightly.

Suyang twitched his lips and really wanted to slap her, but the facts told him that he couldn't. He couldn't afford to offend the little girl in front of him. He would wait until his son was saved.

Sure enough, Ren Zi has a knife on his head, and what he is cutting is his own heart.

"Girl, you are finally here. Look, is there a cure for my son's poison?" he asked quickly.

"Of course there is a solution."

Lin Caisang nodded and spoke slowly.

"But are you sure the Imperial Master won't invite me in to sit down?"

After being reminded by Lin Caisang, Suyang came back to his senses and patted his forehead, "Look at my master's memory. He only bothered to ask about my son's condition. You two girls, please come in."

Lin Caisang was not polite to him and walked directly to the Imperial Preceptor's Mansion.

Butler Xin just followed them, he was so frightened that his clothes were soaked with cold sweat.

These two girls are really wise enough. According to the temperament of the adults in their family, they were beaten in front of so many people yesterday. How could they not take revenge?
