Chapter 803 White Octopus Powder

But his elders told him to listen to Lin Caisang in everything. No matter what she said, he would just do it.

Of course it was hard for him to contradict her.

"But, girl, it's time for my young master to have his meal," he reminded.

"What kind of meal are you going to eat? I'll eat it later. What's in the cooking? Even if it's just to cure the poison, what does it matter if I'm hungry for a meal or two?" Lin Caisang's beautiful eyes widened and she asked Butler Xin.

"Is detoxification more important, or three meals a day?"

"Well, of course detoxification is important, detoxification is important." Butler Xin replied sarcastically.

But eating is equally important. If you don't eat for a few times, you will starve to death! However, his young master only needs two meals if he is hungry. It should not be a big deal. Anyway, this matter is agreed by his family, right?

"After soaking for ten hours, prepare some gruel for him. These days, don't touch those greasy things. Just drink white porridge every day. If you are not used to it, just add some pickles or something. In short, there can be no oil!"

Lin Caisang thought for a while and then explained.

He is so fat that he can compete with two pigs, and he eats big fish and meat all day long. Even if he is like this, does Suyang still expect his son to carry forward the Su family?

Don't the consciences of those imperial doctors hurt? Didn't they tell Suyang that even if Suri wasn't poisoned, it would be difficult to have a son and a half in this life?

"Yes, I understand." Butler Xin responded.

"Um."

Seeing that he had listened, Lin Caisang nodded.

"Just watch him here. When the time comes, get him out and take a bath or something. I'll go back first, You, let's go."

With that said, she took Sui Ziyou and left.

"Aunt... girl..."

Butler Xin watched them leave, unable to find the words to persuade them to stay.

Let's go. As a doctor, don't you need to pay attention to the patient's condition all the time? When the time comes, can we just ask him to get the person out? It's that simple?

...

"Sister-in-law, what on earth did you get for Su Ri?" In the pasture space, Sui Ziyou finally couldn't help but asked Lin Caisang.

This method of detoxification must be too terrifying. For the whole day, I just listened to Su Ri screaming, sometimes threatening the servants, and sometimes begging Su Yang for mercy.

She felt that Su Ri's throat was not broken by her shouting, and she was lucky.

"A good antidote."

Lin Caisang rubbed the white fox in his arms and said.

"An antidote?" Sui Ziyou repeated her words.

Why didn't she quite believe it? In her opinion, this was Su Ri's poison that could make people so miserable.

"Sister-in-law, tell the truth, did you add poison to that medicine bucket?" she asked.

"What are you talking about?" Lin Caisang glared at her angrily.

"I have received the mission. If poison is added, can the Jinzhu Order spare me? Besides, can I do such a sinful thing as adding poison? I am very gentle and kind. "

Sui Ziyou: "..."

Yes, of course she knew that her sister-in-law was very gentle and kind, but it depended on the right person.

As for Su Ri, that scumbag, would her sister-in-law be kind to him?

"I just added a little bit of rice flour in it." Lin Caisang said again when she didn't speak.

"White octopus powder, what is that?" Sui Ziyou asked.
