Chapter 805 A strange thing

Soon, the three of them arrived in the room.

In the room, Ya Molian was holding a greeting card in her hand. When she saw the three of them entering, she threw the message on the table and asked, "Where did they send you today?"

he asks.

"The master of the palace should be from the Imperial Master's Mansion." Ban Jue said.

"National Preceptor's Mansion?"

Ya Molian hadn't spoken yet, but Jiang Zuo raised his eyebrows.

"Hall Master, spies from outside came to report that a doctor came to the Imperial Prefect's Office recently and started to treat Su Ri's poison today. And there is news that the doctor has some poison in his hands for Su Ri's poison. Strange solution."

"Um?"

Hearing this, Ya Molian looked at Jiang Zuo and frowned.

"Although the poison that my subordinates gave Su Ri is extremely difficult to cure, once the antidote comes out... it's just a matter of an antidote pill. But the doctor, according to the report from the spy, used steaming to cure Su Ri. method, and... there are also rumors on the streets of Shaohua City that Su Ri's wailing was heard outside the Imperial Master's Mansion."

Jiang Zuo said.

But the problem is, it won't be painful to detoxify him at all, so why can I hear some wailing?

You know, the Imperial Preceptor's Mansion is not that big. Anyone who can spread the wailing sound all over Shaohua City knows how much punishment Su Ri must have suffered.

He couldn't help but wonder, was that doctor really there to save people? Don't you have a grudge against the Imperial Preceptor's Office? Suyang had offended that doctor before, so he went to the Imperial Preceptor's Office to take revenge, right?

"What else?" Ya Molian asked.

"Also...the doctor was very strange. Yesterday he beat the Imperial Master Suyang in the street, which caused a big fuss." Jiang Zuo said.

"My subordinates have heard about this."

After hearing Jiang Zuo's words, Ban Wu also spoke up.

"It is said that Suyang was assassinated outside the mansion. In desperation, he used the doctor as a shield. After that, the doctor got angry and punched and kicked Suyang."

Thinking about it, this is also a strange thing on the streets of Shaohua City.

"Master, Suyang has been dominating the city of Shaohua for many years. Finally, someone has stepped forward to vent his anger on behalf of those who have been wronged. Everyone is very happy."

"The healer."

Ya Molian glanced at Ban Wu with cold eyes and looked at Jiang Zuo.

"Palace Master, no one knows what that doctor looks like, because she is wearing a mask. She is a female doctor, and she is accompanied by a maid and... a panther."

Jiang Zuo said.

"And yesterday's assassination was carried out by our spies. They originally wanted to kill the female doctor directly during the assassination of Su Yang, but the result... turned out to be a bad start."

The more he spoke, the softer he spoke. He always felt that yesterday's assassination was extremely embarrassing.

Not only was Suyang not injured, he couldn't even kill a healer, and ended up getting himself injured all over. This wasn't a slap in the face.

Hearing this, Ya Molian's eyes sharpened.

"Who did it?" he asked.

"He is from Jianxintang. This person is still in the mansion. Does the master of the palace want to see him?" Jiang Zuo asked.

Although he was very strange in his heart, why did his palace master ask who did it? Anyway, no matter who did it, it failed, so that's fine.

"kill!"

Ya Molian just uttered one word.

"What?!"

Jiang Zuo was shocked. Not to mention him, even Exiled Jue and Exiled Wu were shocked.

Although the assassination failed, at least it was one of their own. There was no need to kill people just for a small failure, right?
