

Star of Space 807

Chapter 807 Isn't it appropriate to do this?

"Yes, I sent someone to tell you early in the morning. Zhou's mother replied to her father-in-law.

"Uncle Gang, why are you so forgetful? Didn't I send someone to inform you before? My family will come to propose marriage today. Your family, Sangsang, is a lucky one. My family, Liang'er, is here now. I still miss Sangsang. No, he specially asked me to come to propose marriage, and I even brought the betrothal gift."

She smiled and waved behind her, asking her servants to carry those things up.

"Uncle Geng, these things are all good stuff. In Ya Village, you will never see such good things in your life. I used them as betrothal gifts for your granddaughter."

"Changhong.

Without even looking at it, Lin Laogong turned his head and looked at his grandson Lin Changhong.

Lin Changhong understood, and walked over in three steps at a time. He directly lifted the two broken boxes that no one liked with both hands, strode out of the yard, and threw them away.

"You...what are you doing?"

Seeing Lin Changhong's actions, Zhou's mother suddenly became embarrassed. She finally recovered and asked.

"Uncle Lao Gang, we are here to propose marriage. Isn't it appropriate for you to do this?" She looked at Lao Gang and asked.

If it weren't for her son Qiu Wei, who was pointing at Lin Caisang's wealth and wealth, who would have wanted to kill this beggar family directly in front of the county magistrate's office!

Now he actually dares to let her suffer here, it's a shame!

"Old man Zhou, I was thinking of the friendship we have had for many years and didn't want to make things so extreme, but this time, your Zhou family has really gone too far. Don't blame me for ignoring our friendship in the past!"

Lin Laogen looked at Old Master Zhou and said coldly.

"this....."

Old Master Zhou looked at Old Gang Lin, knowing how much he had gone too far in doing such a thing, and his face was full of embarrassment.

"Old bastard, I'm also watching your Sangsang get abandoned. Isn't this... just looking at her pity and thinking about giving her a good marriage? Don't worry, my Liang'er will definitely do it in the future. Be kind to Sangsang and never let her suffer in the slightest."

For the sake of his grandson's future and the future of the Zhou family, he had to put up with his old face.

"Old Master Zhou, be careful when you speak, don't let your tongue slip!" Upon hearing his words, Patriarch Lin suddenly pushed Lin Caisang away from him and stood up.

"Who said that Sangsang was abandoned? Where did you hear this? Hand this man over to me. I want to ask him, how did he know that our Sangsang was abandoned? Are you spreading rumors? Come to our Ya Village, I can see how brave that person is!"

"Clan Chief Lin, you are still covering up for Lin Caisang's little girl. Who doesn't know that she just got engaged and Yamo Lian ran away? This matter has already spread throughout Qianlin County."

Mother Zhou stood up and looked at Patriarch Lin with disgust.

"At this time, our Zhou family can stand up and give her the title of aunt. It is already benevolent and righteous. A life of contentment. Otherwise, if she misses our Zhou family, can she, Lin Caisang, still be able to marry?"

Uncle Gang, as for your granddaughter, you have pampered her like that. Who dares to take her? My Liang'er, looking at the past relationship, is willing to..."

"Shut up!"

Uncle Jin frowned and interrupted Mother Zhou.

"You, the Zhou family, are just beasts. Whoever marries into your family will be unlucky, and you want to get involved with us, Sangsang, so let's live out your spring and autumn dreams!"

It's the end of the month, I'm begging for a monthly ticket and sprinting to see how far I can go, haha!
