

Star of Space 815

Chapter 815 Did you do something amazing?

It's all just a little fight, and there's no need to let Ya Molian know about some things, lest he feel uneasy about doing things here and be distracted from thinking about her affairs.

"I can handle it all."

"Well, I believe you."

Ya Molian responded, and the two of them were talking about their own affairs while feeding each other the food on the table.

Ban Jue was sitting alone, and couldn't help but twitching the corner of his mouth. These two masters couldn't see each other. Couldn't they let him leave first and have to show their affection in front of him?

"Palace Master, my subordinates still have some matters, can you...resign first?"

After a while, he couldn't bear it anymore and asked his palace master.

"Go ahead."

Yamolian spit out two words and looked at Lin Caisang again.

"I'll take you out for a walk after I eat. I've been here for so many days. Have you ever walked around the streets of Shaohua City?"

"No."

Lin Caisang shook her head. She really didn't have time to go shopping now. The one in Jian'an City was still lying down. What's more, her family said it was fine, but in fact there were still many things going on.

But at this moment, if Brother Mo Lian accompanied her, she would definitely be happy to go shopping.

"I have taken on two missions, and there is another one in Jian'an City. That one has three broken limbs. He has to be taken care of carefully. Shaohua City has not been here for several days."

Seeing that Ban Jue had already gone out, she spoke to Ya Molian.

"Two missions?"

Ya Molian frowned in confusion and looked at her, her dark eyes full of disapproval.

Didn't you say that you can only take on one of these tasks? How come I can still pick up two more? What is this situation?

Did Sonny do something amazing again after he left?

"Sonny..."

"Don't worry, I just took on a hidden mission, a very simple one." Lin Caisang knew what he was going to say and quickly interrupted him.

Fortunately, she has a genius like Lin Chushui by her side, otherwise this hidden mission would be really difficult, but fortunately, everything has been solved.

"Aren't you going to take me out for a walk? Just wait while I go change my clothes."

With that said, she wanted to go into the Jinzhu space, but unexpectedly, Ya Molian grabbed her wrist.

"Um?"

She looked at him with some confusion and confusion.

"Don't want to eat?" Ya Molian asked her.

Didn't she order all the dishes on the table? I didn't eat much just now.

"I originally wanted to eat, but when I saw you coming, I couldn't eat anymore. Just wait a moment. I'll be quick." Lin Caisang raised his other hand and separated his hand from holding her wrist. , and went to the Jinzhu Space.

She changed her clothes to prevent those people who were following her outright from knowing that she was with Ya Molian.

As long as she changes her clothes and takes off her mask, no one should be able to recognize her, right? Even if they knew that she was related to Ya Molian, they would not associate her with the female doctor of the Imperial Prefecture.

Ya Molian in the private room: "..."

What do you mean, after meeting him together, this girl even lost her appetite? Can't even eat? This girl is lucky enough to be able to say such things!

Helpless, he could only shake his head lovingly.

Less than half an hour later, Lin Caisang was wearing gorgeous clothes and walking side by side with Ya Molian.

"This is King Mo, am I wrong? Why did he come out?"

The common people did not recognize King Mo, but the beaded crown on Ya Molian's head could clearly express his unattainable status. He was the leader of Weiguo, below one person and above ten thousand people. King Mo.
