Chapter 817 Can't be cut with a knife, can't be melted by fire

This piece of milky white jade looks like a discolored stone. Not only does it have a weird shape, but it also makes people frown.

The densely packed holes like pinpricks made her tryphobic.

"This is Thousand Needles Jade from Baibind Mountain. It is hard in texture and cannot be cut with a knife or melted by fire. It is of no use." Ya Molian explained to her that it only has the name of a sacred object from Baibind Mountain, but in fact it is , worthless.

"Thousand Needle Jade? This is the first time I've heard of it."

Lin Caisang reached out and touched the Thousand Needles Jade, and suddenly felt a warm breath flow into his body and spread to his limbs.

She was startled and immediately retracted her hand.

"Brother Mo Lian, is this Nuanyu?" She lowered her voice and asked.

"Why do you see it?" Ya Molian asked her.

"When I touched it just now, I felt a warm current pouring into my body. Would you like to try it?" Lin Caisang asked.

"warm current?"

After hearing her words, Ya Molian was surprised.

Because the name of Thousand Needles Jade is empty, although he has heard of Thousand Needles Jade, he has never touched it, let alone heard that Thousand Needles Jade is a warm jade.

The so-called warm jade is actually a kind of jade that is placed on the body and can give the body a steady stream of warmth like a stove. People who practice the technique can get twice the result with half the effort when practicing the technique.

This kind of jade is so rare that one stone can be worth a city!

He was confused and reached out to reach for the huge piece of Thousand Needles Jade, which looked like a human figure.

Soon, he withdrew his hand.

"There is a warm fluid inside, it must be Nuanyu."

Nodding, he confirmed Lin Caisang's words.

Whether warm jade can warm the body depends on the person. This piece of Thousand Needles Jade should only be able to attract very few destined people.

"It's just that no matter how good the warm jade is, it's useless if it's so big."

Thousand Needles Jade cannot be melted, and it cannot be divided into many parts. What if such a large piece of Thousand Needles Jade is bought back? At most, it is placed at home as a decoration.

"You like it?" he asked.

I knew that this girl would not ask in vain, nor would she stop in front of this piece of Thousand Needle Jade for no reason.

"Yes, I like it, but this jade is too big." Lin Caisang said a little confused.

However, before she could dwell on it for long, she heard the man next to her speak to the owner of the jade shop, "What's the price of this piece of Thousand Needles Jade?"

As soon as the boss heard Ya Molian's voice, he hurried forward.

The words spoken by the two people just now were too soft for him to hear clearly, but this piece of Thousand Needle Jade has been here for many years and no one has ever cared about it. If it can be sold, he will definitely make a lot of money. .

Because this was a business without capital. When he bought this shop, the Thousand Needles Jade was among them.

Because the previous boss didn't want to move such a large piece of useless jade, he kept it as garbage. He didn't want to ask someone to throw the Thousand Needle Jade out, so he kept it here.

"Prince Mo, do you want to buy this Thousand Needles Jade? This Thousand Needles Jade is actually... useless."

Although he really wanted to sell this piece of scrap jade, the man in front of him was Prince Mo. He sold it today. If Prince Mo found out that he had been cheated and bought a piece of scrap jade in a few days, wouldn't he be looking for him? door?

He couldn't afford to offend such a master.

Therefore, he still had to say something clearly.
