

Star of Space 818

Chapter 818 How much money do you need?

"I don't want to ask the same question a third time, what is the price?" Ya Molian stared at the boss coldly and asked again.

"Well."

The boss was so frightened that he trembled all over and swallowed nervously.

"This...five...five thousand taels."

When he originally bought this shop, he originally wanted to spend 20,000 taels of silver, but the previous owner insisted on 25,000 taels. In the end, he felt that the location of the shop was really good, so he bought it for 25,000 taels. Come down.

Now, I can just make up for the five thousand taels.

"Five thousand taels, you black-hearted boss, are you trying to steal money?" Lin Caisang was furious when he heard this.

No matter how much money she has, she can't just throw it away, right? Everyone knows that the Thousand Needles Jade is not worth looking at, let alone useful. When you buy it home, it is just a piece of scrap jade, but it actually costs 5,000 taels of silver?

Why didn't he say he wanted fifty thousand taels?

"this....."

The boss felt a little guilty when he saw Lin Caisang's appearance.

"I've never seen anyone ask for such a price. How can you ask for five thousand taels for such a piece of broken jade? Do you think my girl's silver was blown by the strong wind?" She put her hands on her hips and said angrily to the boss.

"This... Lord Mo, this girl, the Thousand Needles Jade is indeed this price. Lord Mo, you know that this Thousand Needles Jade is collected from Bai blind mountain. It is rare even on Bai blind mountain. What's more, This piece of Thousand Needle Jade has to be transported from Baiyun Mountain to Shaohua City, which costs a lot of money along the way. This... five thousand taels of silver is indeed a bargain.

The boss secretly complained to Ya Molian, who did he offend?

If it weren't for the fact that this was Prince Mo, he would have asked for at least ten thousand taels for this Thousand Needles Jade. Even if he couldn't sell it, the price of this Thousand Needles Jade was indeed clearly stated. of.

"Prince Mo..."

He wanted to say something else, but when Ya Molian raised his hand, he immediately fell silent.

"Send it to Prince Mo's Mansion."

He ordered the boss, then looked at Lin Caisang, "Go up and have a look."

"Buy it now? The price is a bit too expensive, right?" Lin Caisang was still struggling with the price. Didn't he say that Thousand Needles Jade is really useless? Then why do you need so much money?

"Sonny?"

Ya Molian had no choice but to stare at the little girl.

"What money do you need?" he asked her.

"This... doesn't seem to be lacking."

Lin Caisang thought for a moment and then answered seriously.

Any task she takes on will cost more than five thousand taels, okay? Are you someone who is short of that little money?

"Okay then, just buy it, it only costs a little money."

With that said, he followed Ya Molian to the third floor.

The boss following them: "..."

A small amount of money. Is five thousand taels of silver still considered a small amount of money?

Regardless of whether it was small money or not, he had never seen anyone using five thousand taels of silver for nothing. After all, the Thousand Needle Jade was really of no use. It is estimated that few people in Shaohua City would be willing to spend this money. .

Later, on the third floor, Lin Caisang took a fancy to a palm-sized piece of jade. It had two colors, one was milky white and the other was peach. After buying it, the two of them went downstairs.

When he passed by the place where Thousand Needles Jade was placed before, other jade stones had been placed there.

"It's so fast."

Such a large piece of jade can be moved easily. It is estimated that in the time it took them to talk for a while, the Thousand Needles Jade has already arrived at the door of Prince Mo's Mansion, right?

...

Thousand Needles Jade has indeed arrived at the door of Prince Mo's Mansion.
