Chapter 82 Why are you so stupid?

But who told her that she was the one who personally saved Ya Molian? It is normal to have doubts about him, right? This man was too shrewd and too scary for her, so it was better to have less contact with him.

But the more she wanted to have less contact, the more Ya Molian wanted to run to her house. What was this?

"Brother, let me tell you, Brother Mo Lian is very dangerous. You should avoid having too much contact with him in the future, do you understand?"

Although I really don't want to say it, I have to remind my eldest brother that Yamolian is too mysterious to them and cannot be contacted by people like them.

Getting along with Yamolian is like seeking the skin of a tiger and leopard, which is not something a wise man would do.

However, when her eldest brother heard what she said, he looked at her strangely, with a look of disapproval on his face, "Sangsang, you haven't read many books, why are you so stupid?"

Lin Caisang: "..."

This elder brother really didn't want to talk to him anymore. She spoke so seriously and seriously, but he thought she was joking!

"You go ahead and wash yourself slowly, I'll go to the kitchen to see if there's anything to eat, huh.

Throwing the medicinal materials in her hand into the wooden basin, water splashed all over Lin Changhong's face. Then she felt relieved and walked to the kitchen angrily.

"You girl, you are really...forget it, I won't care about you as a child." Lin Changhong looked helplessly at her leaving figure and said.

Lin Caisang: "..."

Damn it, how long was her eldest brother born before her? Was he half an hour younger? no? He actually said she was a child!

She didn't want to argue with a person who blindly worshiped Yamolian!

"Brother Changfeng, why are you cooking again? Where's grandma?" The figure in the kitchen was Lin Changfeng, who was supposed to be studying in the room, but Lin Lu was missing.

"Grandma went to find someone," Lin Changfeng said.

"We will start digging the pond tomorrow. We need to find more people. Since the pond is dug to store water, it must be done quickly. In a month, the rainy season will come. Although it is not a heavy rainy season, once it rains, It is not easy to dig a pond. Changhong discussed it with me and decided to dig it within a month. "

"That's quick. There are so many people, so there's still time." Lin Caisang said.

There are already a lot of people in their village, and digging a pond is not a highly technical job. Anyone can do it if they put in more effort.

"I'm not wrong, am I right? There must be many aunties here today who have signed up, right?" she asked.

"Well, there are quite a few." Lin Changfeng nodded.

Since everyone wants to do it, let them all help.

"Girls are born with less strength, so we discussed it. The uncles have twenty cash per day, and the aunts have fifteen cash per day. It is much better than looking for work outside, and we are not afraid of others gossiping."

As he said that, he glanced at Lin Caisang.

"However, it will cost more money."

Now the only person earning money in the family is Sang Sang. It is not easy to dig up medicinal materials in the mountains. He is worried.

"Don't worry about the money, I'm here."

Lin Caisang patted his chest and said proudly.

She only earned five hundred taels today. Although she had to hide the money, she could earn a little or a lot from selling medicinal materials. It all depended on her mouth. There was nothing to worry about.

"Brother Mo Lian said he would come to help today. Sangsang, do you feel bad?" Lin Changfeng asked.
