

Star of Space 830

Chapter 830 Is she giving you a hard time?

This kind of kindness cannot be forgotten by anyone who wants to erase it.

"The Emperor didn't get any benefits from the Queen Mother, so he wants to come here to find a way?" She raised her eyebrows and said to herself.

"Your Majesty, will you... help the Emperor?" Grandma asked.

"Help, why not help?"

Concubine Lian smiled, and her smile was a little creepy.

Since the emperor wants to save King Lin, she will do whatever it takes, but so what?

Sui Zi has been on the top of the Baibland Mountain for so long. Even if he is rescued, he will be a complete invalid, right? What's the use of getting such a person back?

However, if the emperor wants Lin Wang to come back, then he will come back. How could she mind?

"Gress me up." She ordered the nanny.

...

Soon, the emperor arrived at Bibo Palace.

After Concubine Lian bowed, she was led into the house by the emperor's hand. She walked one step behind the emperor with a sneer on her face.

She knew very well in her heart that she and the emperor had already been sleeping with each other over the years. What's more, where did she and the emperor have the same bed? Since giving birth to his second son, the emperor has never spent a night in her Bibo Palace.

"Concubine Lian, talk to me."

"Yes, Your Majesty."

Concubine Lian was held by the emperor's hand. After sitting down, she responded softly.

"Concubine Lian, I see that you don't look very good these days. Have you ever asked an imperial doctor to check your pulse?" The emperor looked at Concubine Lian's face and asked.

"Your Majesty, I'll be fine with you. It's just that I got up a little early this morning when the Queen summoned me." Concubine Lian replied.

"The Queen summons you?"

The emperor frowned, but then relaxed.

Presumably the queen was also concerned about Sui Zilin's incident. Seeing that Sui Zimo had not made any move, she thought of embarrassing Concubine Lian to vent her anger.

He didn't think this was a big deal. After all, Zimo was really disobedient at this time.

"Is she making things difficult for you? This queen is so outrageous. I must teach her a lesson someday." He pretended to be angry and said to Concubine Lian.

"Your Majesty, the Queen has never made things difficult for me. She just wanted to ask me to speak a word for her in front of King Mo. Your Majesty, please don't be angry." Concubine Lian said quickly.

I couldn't help but snorted in my heart, would the emperor punish the queen for her? That woman is the emperor's childhood sweetheart, so she is just talking big words. Could she still take it seriously?

Even if the queen made things difficult for her, the emperor would only think that it should be right?

"King Mo..."

The emperor's face turned ugly when he mentioned Sui Zimo.

He thought to himself that it was a good thing that Concubine Lian knew the basics and knew to take the initiative to mention this matter, otherwise, he really didn't know how to speak.

"You are feeling unwell. Can someone summon Mo'er to the palace?" he asked.

"Mo'er..."

Concubine Lian hesitated for a moment before raising her head and looking at the emperor with some embarrassment.

"Your Majesty, you know that Mo'er has some feelings for Chen Concubine, the mother-in-law. I haven't seen him for a long time. The last time I saw him was when the Queen Mother summoned him to the palace."

I believe the emperor should know more about Sui Zimo's whereabouts than she does, right?

He was actually acting in front of her right now, what was the need? Doesn't everyone know this?

"This Mo'er is so outrageous." The emperor cursed.

"Concubine Lian, don't be sad. Since Mo'er doesn't want to come to see you, you can go out of the palace to see Mo'er. There is no hatred between mother and son. There are some things that can only be discussed."
