

Star of Space 845

Chapter 845 There should be quite a lot of babies

Not long after, Lin Caisang was sitting at the table in the study room, with a bowl of noodles in front of him. The pink shrimp meat inside made people drool.

"I saw Zhong You just now. Didn't I tell you to take him with you? Why are you so disobedient?" She asked Ya Molian while stuffing a shrimp into her mouth.

In fact, she also knows that Zhong You is really like a burden to Ya Molian now, but there is really no other way to let him take Zhong You with him. If possible, she doesn't want to do it.

"Jiang Zuo is teaching him kung fu. If you stay with me, you must at least have the ability to protect yourself." Ya Molian stretched out his hand, rubbed her head and replied to her.

"When we set out for Baibland Mountain, I will definitely take him with me.

"That's not necessary. There's no need to take him with you to Baibland Mountain." Lin Caisang shook his head.

Now that she's here, Zhong You doesn't have to go. After all, as Ya Molian said, the ability to protect yourself is the most important.

"Brother Mo Lian, you should find someone to teach him Kung Fu. He is really not good at this. He may not even be able to follow me in the future."

"Um."

Ya Molian responded without saying much.

"Has the date been set for going to Baibland Mountain?" Lin Caisang asked.

"Never."

Yamollian replied to her.

"It will take a few days for you to go to the Imperial Preceptor's Mansion. Besides, even after you enter the palace and receive the imperial edict, you will still have a lot of things to prepare. After all, it is the top of the White Blind Mountain. Even the emperor will not let me go there easily. of."

Of course, the emperor could not possibly care about his safety, but his safety also involved the safety of another person.

What the emperor was thinking about was that he could bring his other son back safely, and he thought that he would be unscathed. It was really ridiculous to think about it.

"Why should I go to the palace to receive the imperial edict?" Lin Caisang was a little confused.

Why did she, a member of the Liang Kingdom, enter the palace of the Wei Kingdom to receive the imperial edict? This is just a bit weird, isn't it?

"Some people always think that they are god-like beings, don't they?" Ya Molian raised an eyebrow and asked her.

"That's true."

Lin Caisang nodded undeniably.

Treating everyone except himself as an ant-like existence, including his wife and children, is the royal family. Anyway, he is used to this kind of life.

In this regard, the emperor of Liang was obviously much better than the cold-blooded emperor of Wei.

"Besides, if you don't enter the palace, how can you ask for benefits?" Just as Lin Caisang was thinking about it, he heard Ya Molian speak again.

"Asking for benefits?"

Lin Caisang's eyes became bright after hearing his words.

"This is my favorite. There should be a lot of treasures in the palace of Weiguo, right?"

It would be great if the treasury of Weiguo could be emptied, but unfortunately, that is basically impossible.

"You can ask Ziyu about this. She has entered the treasury and has a photographic memory." Ya Molian reminded her.

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded.

Suddenly, she thought of something, raised her head, and asked Ya Molian.

"Oh, by the way, is it not urgent to go to Baibind Mountain? I encountered something here, so it may be a few days late."

Hearing this, Ya Molian narrowed her black eyes and looked at her seriously.

"What happened?"
