

Star of Space 85

Chapter 85 I am happy to pamper Sang Sang!

"It's still spring, so we can still dig up medicinal materials. If it won't be possible in a few days, we have to take advantage of this time to dig more.

"Hey, this... old man, what do you think?" Lin Lu looked at Lin Laojie again, she was not happy for Sangsang to go out.

"Grandpa, believe Sangsang, I will definitely come back safely. I am the star of wealth and fortune. I am very lucky. No bull, ghost or snake god can get close to me."

Lin Caisang immediately ran to Lin Laogan's side, took his arm and said coquettishly.

"When you come back, Sangsang will buy you the best wine in town to drink, okay?"

"This... must be Yisangsang's."

Lin Laogeng was coaxed by his granddaughter and immediately nodded in agreement.

"Old man...just pamper her."

Mrs. Lin Lu rolled her eyes at her old man angrily.

"I've never seen you like this, letting your granddaughter go out for adventure just for a few sips of wine."

"How can this be an adventure? When Sangsang grows up, it's time for him to venture outside. Besides, it's not far away, and it's not in our Qianlin Town? Also, am I the only one doting on Sangsang? Don't you love her?"

After hearing what she said, Lin Laogong immediately became unhappy.

To say who dotes on Sangsang the most in this family, it is his wife. Even he, the grandfather, is willing to be inferior.

"What's wrong with me doting on Sangsang? I'm happy with it!"

Lin Lu snorted and looked at Lin Caisang with a worried look.

"Sang Sang, you have to be careful when you go out. You must bring enough dry food. You can't starve yourself. Do you understand?"

"Well, Grandma, I'll ask Brother Changfeng to make sesame seed cakes for me later. I'll bring a few more with me." Lin Caisang nodded.

The tension in her heart was finally relieved, and the family members were finally fooled. However, this was because her grandpa and grandma were doting on her and relying on her. Otherwise, how could she be so happy?

At dawn the next day, Lin Caisang went out carrying the sesame cakes that Lin Changfeng had prepared for her, following the numerous instructions from her family.

In the Golden Pearl Space, she took on a high-level mission.

Although Yu Jing kept reminding her to bring enough equipment and medicinal materials, she also thought about it. It wasn't that she didn't prepare anything, but that she didn't even see the patient and didn't know how to prescribe the right medicine. No matter how much medicine she brought, The medicinal materials may be useless.

For her, wearing a homemade mask to isolate germs from the outside world is the best equipment.

Following the suction of the vortex, she came to a town and landed right in front of the bounty notice. But unlike the last mission, this time there was no one in front of the bounty notice.

Not only here, but even on the whole street, there are few people to be seen, and those people are lying in the corner, half-sitting against the wall.

"Tsk!"

Looking at the depressing scene, Lin Caisang couldn't help but frown.

"Little girl..."

"ah!"

Suddenly, a hoarse and ethereal voice sounded behind her, scaring her to scream and her heart beating like "thump, thump".

When I turned my head, I saw an old woman with gray hair, half-bent, holding a broken wooden stick, staring at her with yellow eyes, as if looking at a rare object.

"Old lady, you scared me to death." Lin Caisang breathed a sigh of relief and said.

I think she, Lin Caisang, is not afraid of anything. Her only flaw is... she is afraid of ghosts!

Say softly: Starting today, we will update every morning.
