

Star of Space 855

Chapter 855 Don't even think about escaping!

What's more, as long as the Zhou family can be driven into the mud, that's all.

"That guy Zhou Liang is too cheap!" Lin Changfeng said quietly.

Because of Zhou Liang, that scumbag, he let his sister dress up so beautifully, "I mean, since Mrs. Zhou can come up with such scumbag ideas, why can't we follow suit?"

Just beat that kid until he becomes disabled, and everyone will be able to save trouble.

Lin Caisang: "..."

What she wants is not the method of directly beating people to death with a stick, okay?

Doesn't her patriarch, Brother Feng, think that slowly, bit by bit, grinding the enemy to death is also the ultimate form of torture?

I saw with my own eyes that the people I once looked down upon became stronger bit by bit, while I slowly became worthless, even to the point where I could step on everyone. xD~~~~~xD

This kind of feeling is the most uncomfortable, right?

"This is not a good idea. You might end up in jail. Brother, don't forget that you are going to be an examiner, so you should abide by the law." She said.

"All right."

Lin Changfeng touched his nose and nodded.

"No matter how arrogant the Zhou family is now, it won't be long before they can't stand up anymore."
Lin Caisang said again.

Just as Lin Caisang said, Mrs. Zhou had arranged for someone to wait on the road not far from Ye County early in the morning.

At this time, Mrs. Zhou's carriage stopped under a big tree, waiting for Lin Baiyi and Lin Changfeng to arrive, because she knew that the Lin family only had one ox cart, and she expected that Lin Baiyi would personally send his son to Ye County. .

"Madam, if we come here so early, how long do we have to wait?" A maid next to Mrs. Zhou asked her in a low voice.

An ox-cart is no better than a horse-drawn carriage. How long will it take you, old scalper, to walk leisurely to Ye County? It should take most of a day, right?

Why are they waiting here? Madam, she is too careful, she is afraid of missing her.

Hearing this, Mrs. Zhou glared sharply.

"Shut up and watch carefully. If you distract anyone, I will take your head."

If she misses Lin Changfeng and can't kill them, she will kill this talkative girl. Anyway, this girl is also a slave she bought with money. It doesn't matter if she is beaten to death or crippled.

The maid immediately didn't dare to speak and could only look at the official road in front of her.

Mrs. Zhou exhaled heavily. She didn't know why. She always felt uneasy. She wondered if something would happen this time. Otherwise, her eyelids had been twitching since just now. Where are you?

"Lin Changfeng, even if something is going to happen, you can't escape this time!" She grinded her teeth secretly and said.

Those thugs were all contacted by the maid next to her. She didn't even have a leaf on her body. Even if Lin Changfeng was really beaten to death, as long as those thugs couldn't find the maid next to her. Maid, on the Lin family's side, no matter how capable Lin Caisang is, it's impossible for her to do anything to the Zhou family.

Thinking of this, she stared at the maid's back, her gaze became even deeper.

However, Mrs. Zhou never imagined that the thugs she spent a lot of money to hire had already been taken care of by Nangong Piao'er alone, and at this moment...

"Hey, whose wife is this? She is bringing two such beautiful girls here to enjoy the cool air. Let me take a good look at her."
