

Star of Space 865

Chapter 865 Drawing circles

It seems that he also went crazy with Lin Caisang, right?

"Did the girl agree?" he asked.

"Promise what?"

Lin Caisang raised his eyes and looked at Su Yang.

"National Preceptor, I didn't agree to anything. I just cured Mr. Su's poison. The Imperial Preceptor's Mansion is bleeding so much. Besides, there is a King Lin waiting on Baibind Mountain."

"this....."

Su Yang pursed his lips and said nothing.

He naturally knew this. Except for the hopelessly stupid King Lin, who would eagerly run to Baibind Mountain to die?

The poor emperor doesn't know anything yet. He thinks that this son will be able to hold a big position in the future. It is really ridiculous to ask him, a national advisor, to assist King Lin in the future.

He really wanted to say that he would rather support his nemesis King Mo than support King Lin who didn't understand anything.

If he really becomes the emperor, then the defense of the country will become a plaything in his hands. Who can bear it?

"Besides, they say that Baibind Mountain is dangerous. I am not the only one who wants to save King Lin. National Master, don't you think so?" Just as he was deep in thought, Lin Caisang said again.

"What...what does the girl mean by this?"

Su Yang frowned, very puzzled by Lin Caisang's words.

"You don't have to save the other people on Baibind Mountain if you don't want to, as long as you bring King Lin back safely."

he said.

"laugh."

Hearing his words, Lin Caisang lowered his eyes and smiled faintly.

The free hand, dipped in some tea, was drawing circles on the table.

"The Imperial Master is really fond of joking. Your Majesty is going to send King Mo to Baibind Mountain to rescue King Lin, but at this moment, King Mo asks me to help him. What do you think, the Imperial Master, is King Mo thinking?"

"Well."

Suyang choked at her words, and this time he really couldn't reply.

"Prince Mo must have understood very well in his heart that without me, with his body that could collapse at any time, how could he have been able to reach Baibind Mountain? Not to mention saving others, he would have been unable to save himself."

Just when Su Yang's face turned red from being suppressed, he heard Lin Caisang speak again.

"This girl is going to rescue King Lin who is trapped on Baibind Mountain, and I have to ensure that King Mo will not die on the way to rescue people. To put it bluntly, this job from the emperor is not easy to get, and I am not a fool. He's not stupid, and he can still understand this."

"Yes, yes, the girl is right."

Now that the words have come to this point, what else can Suyang say, so he can only respond.

"What does the girl mean? Should I accept this decree or not?"

"Does this girl still have the right not to accept the call?" Lin Caisang asked him.

Suyang: "..."

He wanted to say that of course she had the right not to answer her. After all, this person came and went without a trace. Who in Manshaohua City could track her whereabouts.

If she just left and never came back, who could say no? In the end, she wouldn't even be able to find her figure?

However, his son is like this now, and his treatment has just begun to improve. If Lin Caisang leaves, what will his son do? From his side, even if his son suffered a little hardship and traveled a long distance, he didn't want Lin Caisang to disappear without accepting this order.

"Take it, please ask the Imperial Master to report to the Emperor of your country that he wants me to accept this decree. It is okay, but my love is not something that anyone can accept casually. It requires sacrifice. "