

Star of Space 869

Chapter 869 Take it for your own use!

"Well.

After hearing this, Suyang felt a chill go down his spine and his whole body felt bad.

"Girl, I'm here too. Just talk casually, just treat it like we're chatting about family matters. Of course we can talk about anything, haha."

In fact, he was roaring in his heart, isn't this what you asked? If I don't tell you, are you going to cut me into pieces? Oh, I've told you everything now, and you're still threatening me so boldly?

"Well, let's talk about family matters." Lin Caisang nodded and said nothing more.

At that time, Eunuch Gui in the palace had already seen the people sent out to inquire about the news, saying that the Imperial Master's Mansion had already set out to enter the palace.

He breathed a sigh of relief, thinking that fortunately he had sent someone to Prince Mo's Mansion to notify him. Prince Mo should come into the palace from time to time, but what he didn't expect was that the person who inquired about the information also came back with a piece of news.

That is, King Jin also entered the palace.

This is not good news. Who in the city of Shaohua doesn't know that King Jin and King Lin are like two natural enemies in this imperial city. If they come into the palace at this time, they are definitely not just here to say hello. Bar?

He immediately quietly entered the imperial study room.

"What's the matter?"

The emperor was waiting for news at this time. When he saw Eunuch Gui coming in, he immediately asked.

"Back to the Emperor, the person who inquired about the information has returned. The Imperial Master and the female doctor are on their way in. The servant has also ordered people to go to Prince Mo's Mansion. Prince Xuan Mo has entered the palace."

Eunuch Gui said.

"Um."

The emperor just responded lightly.

"Your Majesty, slave..."

When Eunuch Gui saw that the emperor did not continue to ask further questions, and could not directly tell the news about King Jin's entry into the palace, lest the emperor doubt him, he could only look at the emperor hesitantly.

"What else is there?" Upon seeing this, the emperor looked towards him.

"Back to the Emperor, the man sent by the servant to inquire about the news came back and said that he saw Prince Jin's carriage and came to the palace. His Highness Prince Jin should be visiting Concubine Lian. I wonder if the Emperor wants him to come with him. Imperial study room?"

Eunuch Gui reminded.

On such an important day, King Jin came to the palace specifically to visit Concubine Lian. No one would believe this.

When the emperor heard what Eunuch Gui said, he was stunned for a moment.

"Since Jin'er has entered the palace, let him go directly to Concubine Lian's palace to sit down." He ordered.

As an emperor, he naturally paid close attention to the intrigues among the princes and kept them in mind.

When King Jin came into the palace at this time, how could he just visit Concubine Lian? His purpose was probably not simple, ranging from wanting to shake his brother's determination to go to Baibind Mountain to rescue King Lin to...

I'm afraid that he wanted to win over the female doctor from the Imperial Preceptor's Office by his own efforts. By the way, he also won over the Imperial Preceptor's Office and took Suyang into his own hands!

He understood this with just one sentence from Eunuch Gui.

It is absolutely impossible to ask King Jin to come to the imperial study together, unless he is already a fatuous and incompetent emperor!

"Just step back."

"My slave, please retire." Eunuch Gui retreated.

Arriving outside the imperial study room, he waved to a young eunuch.

Upon seeing this, the little eunuch immediately came over, leaned over and put his ear to his mouth.

"Go and watch outside. If His Highness Prince Jin asks to see the Emperor, tell him directly. The Emperor will order him to go directly to Concubine Lian. There is no need to say anything else to him."
