

Star of Space 871

Chapter 871 Just to protect myself

"Um.

Ya Molian just glanced at Lin Caisang lightly, then took the lead in raising her feet and heading towards the imperial study room.

"This King Mo has a bit of a temper. Why, has the Imperial Master offended him before?" Lin Caisang asked when Ya Mo Lian took the first step and looked at Su Yang.

The solemn expression upon hearing the question was no longer as simple as a twitching of the corners of the mouth.

Offended?

What kind of thing is considered an offense?

Is it considered an offense to cause Prince Mo to be exiled for fifteen years?

But God knows, what does this have to do with him? He just arranged his destiny based on Sui Zimo's birth date, and it really has nothing to do with him.

If you want to blame, you can only blame Prince Mo's mother. Why did she give birth to this miserable son in that year, that month, and that time of the day? Even if she had to hold it in her stomach for a little while longer, if Concubine Lian had been more ambitious and given birth to such a cup of tea earlier, her fate would not be like this!

"So be it."

He couldn't say anything and could only reply lightly.

"Girl, let's go in too. The Emperor must be impatient."

"Whether he is waiting in a hurry or not, does it have anything to do with this girl?" Lin Caisang pushed back his words.

Suyang: "!!!"

Okay, girl, you are awesome, I am convinced by you, okay?

But King Mo had already entered, and it was impossible for them not to go in. They had to follow, so the two of them followed King Mo to the imperial study room.

However, what Suyang didn't know was that shortly after their figures disappeared, a figure flashed out from the corner of the official road and looked at the place where the carriage was parked, but several important figures were no longer there.

"It seems that he and the female doctor don't know each other." This person was none other than Prince Jin, Suizi Jin, who was driven to the harem to meet Concubine Lian by the young eunuch.

"Your Majesty, what do you mean by this? Are you suspecting that King Mo and the female doctor joined forces to deceive the Emperor?" Dou Qiankuo was standing next to his prince. Hearing his words, Dou Qiankuo couldn't help but ask. made a sound.

"Shouldn't this king be suspicious?" Sui Zijin glanced at Dou Qiankuo coldly.

His biological brother has never even paid attention to the imperial doctor in the palace, let alone a female doctor. If he heard the word "female" in normal times, Yamo Lian would have sneered at it, so what? Maybe he could ask her to go to Baibind Mountain together.

Women, in their eyes, are all the same, they are always just a drag, nothing more!

"My lord, are you worried too much? King Mo's health is not as good as before. With Jiang Zuo's meager medical skills, it is impossible to cure the poison on his body. Come to think of it, he asked the emperor for the female doctor this time. Is it just for self-protection?"

Dou Qiankuo said what he was thinking.

How could a female doctor who appeared out of thin air have anything to do with Prince Mo's Mansion? If it is true that this female doctor is related to King Mo, then she is so powerful, can she not be able to cure King Mo's poison?

"Or maybe King Mo wants to make friends with the female doctor through this, so as to get her help and cure the poison in his body?"

He thought for a while and said again.

"Hmm...it's possible." Sui Zijin nodded.

His brother had always been a farsighted one, and his thoughts were even worse than his own. If it weren't for his father's disgust with him, he would have doubted that he would compete with him for the supreme position.