

Star of Space 878

Chapter 878 I'm here to take care of you

...

Early in the morning, the genius has just dawned.

Outside the examination room in Ye County, there was already a sea of people.

It's not that there are particularly many people taking the examination, but there are indeed a lot of people bringing their family members to the examination room. Many of them are family members who come to see one person into the examination room. There are horse-drawn carriages, ox-carts, and even people who come on foot. Anyway, it's very crowded.

"Why didn't you listen to my advice and insist on coming here?"

After getting off the carriage, Lin Changfeng was still thinking about his sister.

If you have the time to come outside the examination room to escort him to the examination room, you might as well sleep a little longer at home with your head covered with a quilt. Why bother?

"I just have to watch you go in so I can feel at ease." Lin Caisang also muttered.

Of course, watching Lin Changfeng enter the examination room was only secondary. The most important thing was not done yet. She still had to wait here for someone to show up. This time, she wanted to let someone finish it off!

"What's so uneasy? Haven't you prepared everything for me?" Lin Changfeng said angrily.

His Sangsang, I really don't know what to say to her. Everything that can be prepared is pen, ink, paper and inkstone. She prepares two copies at once for fear that something will happen to him in the examination room. Accident.

"Brother Changfeng, please stop talking. If you look at others and then at me, you should know that our family is already relaxed enough." Lin Caisang said.

Hearing this, Lin Changfeng noticed the crowd at the entrance of the examination room. Indeed, there were quite a few people coming to see them off, and the door of the examination room was really crowded.

Fortunately, the examination room was guarded by officers and soldiers. No one except the candidates could enter the area where the officers and soldiers were standing. Of course, candidates had to undergo strict inspection if they wanted to enter.

"The time hasn't come yet, the entrance to the exam hall isn't even open yet."

"It's still early."

Lin Changfeng also nodded.

"Why don't you, Sangsang, go back first?" he suggested.

"Brother Changfeng, you know what I'm here for, and you still want me to go back?" Lin Caisang asked him, frowning.

"I know very well what you are here for, so I let you go back. The Zhou family is not easy to mess with. If because of today, you mess with those evil people from the Zhou family again, I will be the one to blame." I didn't take good care of my sister."

Lin Changfeng sighed.

He didn't care at all whether Zhou Liang passed the exam or not, so what if he passed?

But then again, for someone like Zhou Liang, who is obsessed with the love of his children every day, the key is that he is a libertine, can he pass the exam? He was a hundred in disbelief.

"I'm obviously here to take care of you, okay?" Lin Caisang flattened his mouth and said.

"Okay, you are here to take care of me."

Lin Changfeng shook his head and raised his hand to lightly tap the tip of Lin Caisang's nose.

"Don't worry, everything here is left to me. Grandma and grandma, I will find someone to talk to you, and they will understand you. But, Sangsang, go to Brother Mo Lian now, you want everything Be careful, it doesn't matter what you do, just don't let yourself be wronged."

His sister had told him before that Ya Molian had sent a letter and asked her to go to his house and someone would pick her up.

Although he felt that it was a bit frivolous to go to the hero's house so casually, Sangsang should not agree to such a request.

but.....

After all, she was his sister, and she had her own reasons for everything she did. Moreover, he thought that with Melian Ge's temperament, he would not make such a request to Sangsang unless there was something important.