Chapter 883 Give our Lin family an explanation

He stood up, pointed at Zhou Liang, and said to Old Master Zhou. 6

"Now the marriage between Zhou and Lin's family has been canceled long ago, and my sister has also been married. Today, Zhou Liang did this. As the elder of the Zhou family, not only did you not reprimand Zhou Liang for his wrong words, but you said in front of my sister, These ambiguous words are an attempt to discredit my girl.

Mr. Zhou, should you give an explanation to our Lin family? "

he asked sharply.

"you!"

Old Master Zhou really didn't expect that Lin Changfeng would step forward at this time.

He just said this just so that Zhou Liang could enter the examination room with peace of mind. Couldn't Lin Changfeng understand his heart as an elder?

"Changfeng, Grandpa Zhou has no other intentions. It's just that Liang'er is mentally unstable right now. Grandpa Zhou just wants to stabilize him first. You should be able to understand..."

"I can't understand!"

Lin Changfeng interrupted Old Master Zhou bluntly.

"In order to stabilize your grandson's mind, do you deserve to have my sister's reputation ruined? Mr. Zhou, in your eyes, only your grandson is a human being, and the others are just chess pieces that you can step on at any time. ?"

As he spoke, he sneered.

"That's right. When you had to get married with my Lin family, didn't you just take a fancy to my sister's fortune? Now Zhou Liang is going to take the imperial examination. A few days ago, you didn't care about your face and that my sister was already engaged. Come to my house to propose marriage shamelessly?

What are you talking about with shamelessness, asking my girl to marry into your family as a concubine? Old Master Zhou, I really want to ask you, you are also a scholar after all, right? Your Zhou family can be considered a scholarly family, right? How could someone do such a destructive thing?

Now my sister is just here to take me to the examination room, but she has to be humiliated by you Zhou family members. Does Mr. Zhou want this younger generation to swallow this tone?

Then I would like to ask everyone present. Everyone, let me ask you, if a member of your family is so humiliated by an outsider, what should you do? Just because Master Zhou has worked so hard for his grandson, why don't you just forget it? "

"Lin Changfeng, you..."

At this moment, Old Master Zhou could hardly hold back the blood in his mouth.

In the past, Lin Changfeng looked gentle and polite, but he never seemed to be such a talkative person. Today, for Lin Caisang, he actually opposed him in public!

But looking back and thinking about it, Lin Caisang was a treasure in the hearts of the Lin family, both in the past and now. As Lin Changfeng's cousin, it was natural for Lin Changfeng to protect her.

He actually couldn't find anything to say to refute Lin Changfeng's words.

"Where do these people come from? Isn't it too wicked? They ruined the reputation of this girl in front of so many people, but they still acted like a matter of course, and they are still literati. The literati's face is so embarrassing to them. Lost everything?"

"Why is it my grandson? If I had such an embarrassing grandson, I would have slapped him to death. How can I let him sneak out and embarrass me?"

An old man who was about the same age as Old Master Zhou looked at Old Master Zhou steadily and said.

"Grandpa, what are you doing? Your grandson and I are still standing here. Comparing me with those unworthy scum, have you ever thought about how your grandson and I feel?" The young man standing next to the old man looked at me with disdain. He glanced at Zhou Liang and muttered to the old man.
