Chapter 885: Decide on Yamolian

If Lin Caisang dared to trick her, she really didn't know what to do with her. After all, Lin Caisang was supported by the Lin family, but she was betrayed by the Zhou family. Press. 6

It is always more convenient for Lin Caisang to do things.

"Lin Caisang, you..."

"Brother Changfeng, it's almost time. It's time for you to enter." Lin Caisang stopped paying attention to the Zhou family and turned to look at Lin Changfeng.

"Um."

Lin Changfeng responded softly, raised his hand and touched his sister's head, then turned and entered the examination room.

At this time, the candidates were also entering the examination room one after another. There were fewer and fewer people outside the examination room, until only Lin Caisang and the Zhou family were left.

"Young mulberry picking girl, you are so disappointed in Grandpa Zhou by how you behave today." Old Master Zhou looked at Lin Caisang, his words full of regret.

"Fortunately, Grandpa Zhou thought your child was a good kid. Who knew... You, it's true that you haven't learned even half of your father's good qualities. Grandpa Zhou feels pity for your grandpa."

After listening to Old Master Zhou's words, Lin Caisang, who was about to leave, glanced sideways at him.

"I'm here to thank Old Master Zhou for your kindness. As for your words, I will convey them to my grandpa exactly as they are. Also, Old Master Zhou, in fact, I really appreciate your disappointment in me. Otherwise, if you continue to love me so much, I will be really...disgusted, so disgusting that I won't be able to eat."

While she was talking, she got into her carriage and pulled down the curtain.

"you--"

Old Master Zhou was so angry that he stifled back and almost fell down. Just as he was about to say something else, he heard a word from Lin Caisang's cold voice in the carriage.

"Walk."

"Yes, Miss." The horse and carriage glanced sideways at the Zhou family, then drove away in the carriage.

"Lin Caisang!"

Old Master Zhou watched Lin Caisang leave from his eyes, his old teeth almost shattered.

"Where did she get the carriage?" he asked the people around him.

"Who knows, maybe he was hired from somewhere." Mrs. Zhou said disdainfully.

As for the carriage just now, Lin Caisang couldn't even afford it after selling it. It must have been hired, right? she thinks.

"Father, I have inquired about it. The Lin family has a carriage. It is said that when Lin Caisang opened a shop in Qianlin County, the man she was engaged to bought it for her for transportation."

A man came out and explained the origin of Lin Caisang's carriage.

"Ya Molian?"

Old Master Zhou was even more confused.

Ya Molian is just an ordinary person from Ya Village. At most, she has more strength than others. Where can she get so much money?

What's more, he had heard before that Yamolian had given many betrothal gifts to the Lin family, all of which were handed over to Lin Caisang for personal safekeeping.

What is the origin of this Yamolian?

"Didn't you find out where Ya Molian went?" he asked.

He felt that Yamolian might really be the lost child of some wealthy family. Now that he had been found, Lin Caisang was really lucky!

If he had known this, he should have decided on Ya Molian when he was in Ya Village. Anyway, their Zhou family also has girls, but is it too late to do this now?

"No." The man replied.

"Go and inquire again." Old Master Zhou explained.

If possible, Ya Molian cannot take advantage of Lin Caisang.
