

Star of Space 889

Chapter 889 It's also difficult to handle here...

None of the neighbors knew that she was the most strict with her mouth. It would be impossible for anyone to find out anything about her family from her mouth.

It's true that the head of her family, who occasionally went to have a drink with friends, might have spilled the beans about what happened at home, was actually here giving her a serious warning to leave.

Really!

"But that little girl is so generous."

She sighed again, and took out the ten taels of silver immediately, as if the silver was not silver.

"I'm going to be busy these days. If anyone comes to see me outside, you'll have to block it for me."
When the man saw what she said, Sangsang said.

"okay, I get it. 【】 "

The woman responded.

...

Everything is almost ready, and time passes day by day.

In the Weiguo Palace, the Queen has come to the Imperial Study Room several times, urging the Emperor to send King Mo to Baibind Mountain to rescue her son.

But helplessly, the emperor just responded to the queen with his mouth, but after turning around, there was no movement at all, as if there was no such thing as the prince being in danger at Baibind Mountain.

At this point, not to mention others, even he felt that he should be suspected.

It was night, everything was quiet, and there was not a single eunuch serving in the emperor's bedroom. Eunuch Gui was also condemned by the emperor, but there was a pot of hot tea on the table in the emperor's bedroom.

"Why haven't you come yet? In the past..."

The emperor looked outside and muttered something.

Suddenly, a breeze blew by, and the fragrance hit his nose. When the emperor looked at the chair on the other side again, he saw that someone was already sitting on it.

"Why are you looking for me?"

The man wore a dark mask and glanced at the emperor with faint eyes.

"Benefactor, you are finally here. I sent you a message a few days ago. I have been waiting for a few days but I haven't seen you coming. My heart is..." Seeing him, the emperor stood up directly and raised his hand to pick up the teapot. , poured a cup of tea for the masked man.

"The day has not come for us to meet." The masked man just said calmly.

"I know it's not time to meet regularly, but... Sui Zimo asked me for an antidote, but I really can't get it, so I can only turn to you for help."

The emperor looked at the masked man carefully and said.

"Suizi Mo came to ask you for the antidote?"

When the masked man heard the emperor's words, a look of surprise flashed in his eyes.

Isn't that kid always very hard-boned, and would rather suffer from the poison than ask his father for an antidote?

What happened this time? Did the sun really come out in the west?

"You agreed?" he asked the emperor.

"Benefactor, I can't agree if I don't agree. If I don't agree, Sui Zimo will not go to Baibland Mountain. And the female doctor he proposed to go with before thinks that there is no need for Sui Zimo to go. Baiyunshan, it's also very difficult for me here."

The emperor said with embarrassment on his face.

After what happened in the imperial study room last time, Sui Zimo must have doubted him, so at this time, he had better let Sui Zimo go to Baibland Mountain quickly, so as not to cause any more trouble for him in Shaohua City.

"You don't have the antidote here?" the masked man asked.

"Yes, yes."

The emperor spoke and said.

He always had an antidote given by his benefactor, although it was not much, just one. Whenever Sui Zimo came to ask for the antidote, he could always take it out and make it.
