Chapter 89 Do things in a measured way? Then there is a ghost!

"Afu, hurry up and invite Mr. Wei over here. A master ordered the old housekeeper beside him.

Yacun, Lin family.

There were not many people coming and going, and they all went to Mengshan Mountain to help.

Because they were afraid that the Lin clan and the Ya clan would have conflicts, Lin Changhong and the Lin Lu clan joined forces and all the people named Lin went to dig ponds, and the people surnamed Ya went to reclaim the mountains.

Anyway, there were so many people, almost the whole village was mobilized, so there was no fear that it would not be completed.

"You have to memorize all these head accounts clearly. Don't leave any behind. If you don't understand, just ask Chang Feng for advice. Do you understand?" In the yard, Ya Molian and Lin Changhong gathered in a group and talked.

"I know, I've memorized these people's names all night. They can't be mistaken." Lin Changhong nodded.

If you make a mistake in your work, you can still correct it. If you make a mistake in recording the account, it's okay to make more mistakes. But if there are one or two missing, there will be a big mistake, and Sangsang will have to scold him to death when he turns around.

"Brother Mo Lian, don't worry. Sang Sang already explained everything before he left. I'll remember it."

"Xiao Sangzi went up the mountain?" Ya Molian asked casually.

He came here very early today, but he didn't see Lin Caisang. He was probably worried about the money after seeing so many people coming to help.

"No."

Lin Changhong shook his head.

"Sang Sang said that there were not many medicinal materials left in the mountains and could not be dug, so he wanted to go to other places to look. He said it would take three days to come back.

It was only the first day, but he began to worry and regretted that he should have accompanied Sangsang.

"What? Went somewhere else?" Ya Molian's eyes flashed slightly and she looked at Lin Changhong.

There are so many places in the mountains near Yacun, how could a little girl like Lin Caisang harvest all the medicinal materials? Are you kidding him?

Moreover, if others don't know, how can he not know? How can that girl distinguish between the outer forest and the inner forest? As long as she can dig up medicinal materials, she won't go anywhere?

"Did she say where she was going?" he asked.

"I didn't say it." Lin Changhong shook his head.

"Brother Mo Lian, don't worry. Sangsang does things in a measured way. Just watch. She will be back in less than three days."

Hearing this, Ya Molian took a deep breath and thought to herself, does that little girl do things in a measured way? Then there is a ghost!

She is just a girl who will infiltrate wherever there is danger. Can he rest assured?

"Changhong, you go to Menghuangshan and keep an eye on it first. I have something to do at home, so go and come back."

With that said, he turned around and walked out of the yard, back to his home.

...

"come out."

In the hall, Ya Molian spoke two words into the air, and the next moment, Ban Jue and another woman in black knelt in front of him respectfully.

"See the Palace Master."

"stand up."

Ya Molian sat down and looked at Ban Jue.

"Exiled Jue, has anything big happened in Qianlin County recently?"

"Back to the palace master, my subordinates have never discovered that there is any major incident in Qianlin County." Ban Jue replied.

"Master, I have learned that an epidemic has occurred in Hongling Town, north of Qianlin County. More than half of the people in the town have been infected with the disease, and more than a hundred people have died. The county government of Qianlin County has issued a notice saying who can Healing the people in Hongling Town will reward you with a reward of one thousand taels."

Shi Jian spoke.

"epidemic?"

Ya Molian tightened her hands on the table and secretly grinded her teeth.

"As expected, she is a little girl who crawls wherever there is danger. Is it so easy to treat an epidemic?"

He was almost certain that Lin Caisang, the little girl, had definitely gone to Hongling Town, and she was going for the thousand taels of gold.
