Chapter 892 So shameless

If you don't want to talk to him, just don't. Why do you say you can't rest? Could it be that the dignified Prince Mo, who could support such a large Nine Lotus Palace with one person, would rest at this time?

Even if she really fell asleep, with Ya Molian's alertness, she should have woken up when she heard his voice, right?

"It seems that my brother really thought that Baibind Mountain and his party were on a trip this time." He sneered and said.

"Does King Jin think that, doesn't he?" Ban Jue asked him.

Huh, Sui Zijin just wishes that Sui Zi would die in Baibind Mountain and never come back, right?

"Of course I..."

"donkey--"

Just as he was about to speak, he heard the sound of a carriage approaching. He quickly turned to look in the direction of the city gate and saw the carriage from the Imperial Prefecture had already arrived.

Taking a deep breath, he secretly told himself in his heart that he should let Ya Mo Lian, the Mo King, be arrogant for a little longer. When they reached Baibind Mountain, it would be time for them to cry.

Lifting his feet, he walked in the direction of the carriage of the Imperial Master's Mansion.

This time, he came not only to see Ya Molian's jokes, but also to have a formal meeting with this female doctor who even his father admired with admiration.

In this way, when she returns to Shaohua City in the future, he will be able to gain a place in winning people's hearts.

"Tsk, Palace Master, this Prince Jin is really... so shameless.

Ban Jue looked at Sui Zijin's impatient look and was really worried for him.

However, if he hadn't known that the female doctor was the mistress, he might have actually done something, such as secretly causing trouble and making Sui Zijin look embarrassed in front of the female doctor.

But now, there is no need at all!

He knows only too well the lethality of his mistress, a young man Jin...

Sure enough, as soon as his thoughts came to an end, Sui Zijin, who had just arrived in front of Lin Caisang's carriage, greeted the driver and was about to salute Lin Caisang, was startled by a cold voice.

"Why are you making so much noise? It's so annoying!"

With that said, Lin Caisang directly lifted the curtain and jumped out of the carriage.

"Who are you? What are you doing here? Are you looking for death? Butler Xin, who is this? Is this girl going to take a few people to Baibind Mountain to die?"

"Well."

Butler Xin choked at her words and couldn't reply. He could only raise his hand and touch his nose.

This is King Jin, who has always been famous in Shaohua City for his shamelessness, but he is also a prince, and there is nothing he can do to stop him from displaying his abilities. What can he do?

"Girl, this is His Royal Highness Prince Jin." He could only introduce.

"Prince Jin?"

Lin Caisang looked sideways and looked Sui Zijin up and down.

"Why, has your father regretted not letting me go to Baibind Mountain? That's just right. I'm too lazy to make this trip. Butler Xin, please go back." She said to Butler Xin.

"ah?"

Butler Xin was stunned when he heard this.

When did Prince Jin say this? Why didn't he hear it? Did the girl realize it on her own?

Not to mention Butler Xin, even Sui Zijin was shocked when he heard her words.

He has already inquired about this little girl. She is a person who thinks out of her head and does things without thinking at all. If he does not say anything at this time, such a hat that prevents her from going to save King Lin, It's going to hit him on the head.
