Chapter 901 Don't Fall Behind

He was entrusted by his family to keep an eye on Lin Caisang. He must not let King Mo take advantage of it and win over Lin Caisang for his own use. He thought that this should be the emperor's intention. .

But now, the two are getting closer and closer, talking and laughing on weekdays.

That was Prince Mo. I had never seen him smile to anyone else, let alone other people. Even his biological father, the emperor, had a cold face.

He was really afraid that if he wasn't careful, Lin Caisang would run to King Mo's end.

When the time comes, how will he explain to his adults?

"Steward, why don't you go and... give me some advice?" Not only Steward Xin, but also several people from the Imperial Prefect's Office followed him. They also felt that it was not a problem to continue like this, so they suggested to Steward Xin.

Unexpectedly, Butler Xin glanced at them coldly.

"If you have the ability, would you like to persuade me?"

He has already gone there to tell her once. Lin Caisang didn't take him seriously at all, okay?

What's more, Lin Caisang can't be said to be from their Imperial Preceptor's Mansion. He just put up a notice to treat his young master. He wants to lure her to the Imperial Preceptor's Mansion and use it for the master's use. That is only the master's own. idea.

If Lin Caisang doesn't want to, who can do anything to her?

"This... we are not familiar with that girl, but you are familiar with her, Butler Xin. Go ahead and tell her, she will listen, right?" Seeing him say this, several of the guards could only laugh.

Let them tell Lin Caisang that they don't want their own heads. That female doctor dared to poison even the imperial master. A few days ago, she poisoned Eunuch Su, the most powerful person around the emperor.

They had heard that Eunuch Su was demoted by the emperor to raise pigs because he offended Lin Caisang, and he was the kind who ate with the pigs.

Now, who dares to offend Lin Caisang.

Butler Xin just rolled his eyes after listening to their words.

Why is he familiar with Lin Caisang?

Is it considered acquaintance after just a few words? There are many people who are familiar with Lin Caisang, but King Mo still rides in the same carriage with Lin Caisang every day?

The key is not to say a few words, but whether Lin Caisang wants to get acquainted with others. This is the most important thing, okay!

"I....."

"Butler, butler, that girl is here."

Butler Xin wanted to say something else, but he heard the person next to him remind him. When he looked back, he saw Lin Caisang walking towards them.

"girl."

He quickly stood up and looked at her with a smile on his face.

"We will pass through the next county tomorrow. Prepare all these medicinal materials by then and don't leave any of them behind." Lin Caisang directly gave him a medicine list with densely packed medicinal names written on it.

Only then did Butler Xin remember that it was almost time for his young master to undergo treatment for his poison.

"Okay, girl, I will order someone to prepare it." He quickly took the medicine list into his hand and nodded.

"Also, when Mr. Su wakes up tomorrow, there is no need to knock him unconscious. He can just be tied up with a rope." Lin Caisang thought for a while and then ordered.

Anyway, that boy Su Ri was mute by her and couldn't make any sound. He tied him with a hemp rope and threw him in the carriage. Let him do whatever he wants. She wouldn't have any objection at all. .

"Girl, can't...can't you treat the poison while the young master is sleeping?" Butler Xin asked.

This was a question he had always wanted to ask. Since Lin Caisang was afraid of making noise and could let him knock the person unconscious, could he also let the young master cure the poison while he was unconscious?
