Chapter 902 It's good to know that it's okay to talk too much

"no!"

Lin Caisang gave him two words directly.

"If he fell asleep and drowned in the medicinal bath, who would be responsible? Don't tell me that he can be supported by others. The water in the medicinal bath is poisonous. Who is not afraid of death? If you are willing to support me, then of course I won't stop you."

"this....."

The corners of Butler Xin's mouth twitched seriously.

"Girl, isn't this a detoxifying herb? Why is it still poisonous?"

"Do you know how to fight poison with poison?" Lin Caisang asked.

"Besides, the absorption of medicinal properties is very different when a person is asleep and when he is awake. If the treatment is done while sleeping, it will take a lot longer. We don't have that much time, do you understand?"

As she said that, she glanced in the direction of Ya Molian again.

"I understand, little one." What could Butler Xin do? He could only respond.

"Also, let's find a deserted place tomorrow night. Don't attract other people's attention because of Mr. Su's screams." Lin Caisang explained again.

"Yes, I understand, little one."

Butler Xin answered again.

"There's nothing else, so I'm going to rest. I have to go on the road tomorrow morning," Lin Caisang said.

It has been a bumpy ride these past few days. She slept on the carriage during the day and went to work in the space at night. Her whole body seemed to fall apart. Now that the clothes for Ya Molian were ready, she naturally wanted to have a good night's rest. of.

"Wait, girl."

Just when Lin Caisang was about to walk towards Ya Molian, she heard Butler Xin's voice, and she stopped and looked at him.

"What else?" she asked.

"That... girl, I just want to say that Prince Mo's side is full of men. You... it's really inappropriate for you to stay with him to rest. Otherwise, you should go back to your own carriage to rest. You Do you think it's good?"

After thinking for a long time, Butler Xin wanted Lin Caisang to come back to their Imperial Prefecture, citing the reputation of his daughter's family.

"No need."

But Lin Caisang did not accept his 'love' and directly rejected his proposal.

"Steward Xin's side is all men. I'm the same everywhere. What's more, when I go to Baibland Mountain this time, I always have to eat and drink with Prince Mo and the others. If I come back here now, there's no guarantee that There won't be any grudges in King Mo's heart, so it's better for me to do more than do less."

"Girl..." Butler Xin listened to her words with a very ugly face.

She was afraid that King Mo would be unhappy, but wasn't she afraid that the Imperial Master would look bad after hearing that she was too close to people from Prince Mo's palace?

"There is one more thing that I need to remind Butler Xin." Lin Caisang interrupted him.

"Anything else, please tell me, miss," said Butler Xin.

"This girl just came to the Imperial Master's Mansion to treat Mr. Su's poison. She did not sell herself into the Imperial Master's Mansion to be a slave. There is no need to look at the faces of anyone in the Imperial Master's Mansion. I hope Butler Xin will keep this in mind and never forget it. "

Lin Caisang's voice was calm, but it contained a strong warning, and even his eyes looked a little dangerous.

"This... I'm sorry, girl, I'm too talkative." Butler Xin felt a chill running down his back and quickly apologized.

How could he have forgotten how powerful this woman is? Fortunately, what he just said did not directly point out the meaning of his family. Otherwise, it is unknown whether she will treat his master's poison again. .

"It's good to know how to talk too much."

Lin Caisang didn't say anything more.
