

Star of Space 904

Chapter 904 Not so appetizing

"Palace Master, do you feel that there is often a strong smell of blood along this road?" He asked his doubts as his palace master took the plate from his hand.

"Are you aware of it?"

Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows and chuckled.

There are many people who don't want them to go to Baibind Mountain to save people, and there are also many people who don't want her brother Mo Lian to return to Shaohua City.

It's just that these people thought they could succeed, but they didn't expect that someone would be watching them secretly and send them into the Palace of Hell without any effort.

"Is it true? Someone wants to stop us from going to Baibind Mountain?" Ban Wu asked.

He thought that there was sometimes a smell of blood along the way just because their carriages would carry meat and food, but he did not expect that someone really wanted to end their lives on this road.

"But Palace Master, those people..."

If they were just ordinary people, they wouldn't have noticed it for so long. It can be seen that those people are not ordinary people, and those who get rid of people before them are even more extraordinary.

Now that Jiang Li mentioned it, a layer of cold sweat broke out on his back.

"Just pretend you didn't find anything."

Ya Molian glanced at Ban Wu and the others, reminding them.

"Since someone is willing to help us, why wouldn't we do it?"

Lin Caisang chuckled lightly, said something, then picked up a bunch of barbecue slices and started eating.

"Well, these honey-brushed meat slices are really good. Your Highness, Prince Mo, you should try it too." As she said that, she raised her eyebrows. Unfortunately, because she was wearing a mask, no matter how she raised her eyebrows, no one could see her. .

After listening to her words, Ya Molian also took a bunch to eat and nodded.

"Not bad, right? It seems like you need to bring more honey with you when you go out from now on. Ban Jue, you guys should eat it too. Eat more. You won't have such a good appetite tomorrow night. Eat it quickly."

Everyone was confused after hearing her words.

Mistress, tonight is not over yet, how do you know you won't have such a good appetite tomorrow night? Could it be that besides your superb medical skills, you are also a great fortune teller?

However, no matter what, eat as soon as you have something to eat. This is the greatest joy of all foodies.

The next night...

"Ah, you bitches, you will not die well. You surnamed Xin, you heartless bastard, did your father treat you badly? How dare you torture me like this? Let me go quickly. I want you to I'll kill you!"

Listening to the screams that echoed throughout the forest, they finally understood why their mistress said such things last night.

"Girl, why don't you... stop his mouth?" Jiang Zuo asked.

This evening, Su Ri was still mute. How could he be able to make a sound when it was time to cure the poison? What's even more terrifying is, could Su Ri scream like this for eight hours?

This is really...goosebumps are rising on their bodies.

"He's in pain, so he has to find a place to vent it, right? He can't move anywhere else, but there's only one mouth left, so let him curse." Lin Caisang shrugged and said.

Everyone: "..."

Mistress, you are... so tall!

You can only scold but cannot hit or kill people. For Su Ri, who is arrogant and arrogant to the extreme, it is simply a new level of torture.

"Quarrel."

Ya Molian just spit out one word.
