

Star of Space 910

Chapter 910 Blood, there is blood!

"What's this?"

Lin Caisang didn't take it seriously at all and chuckled.

"I'm not used to riding in a carriage for so long, I just feel a little motion sick."

The carriage was so bumpy that she, who had not traveled far for many years, could bear it. The reason why her stomach was not jolted out was because she had the ability to take the elixir she had made.

"His Royal Highness King Mo, you ordered everyone to rest where they are for two hours. Isn't it because of me?"

Suddenly, she seemed to understand.

She was thinking just now, would her brother Mo Lian be afraid of those things on Baibind Mountain? Why do we need to rest here for two hours first?

But it turned out that it was because of her, because he saw that her face was not good, so he wanted to wait for her to recover, wasn't it?

"Rest first and let Ban Jue cook some rice porridge." Ya Molian said.

"oh."

Lin Caisang nodded and didn't say anything in reply.

"By the way, Mo..."

"ah!"

Lin Caisang still wanted to speak, but was interrupted by a scream.

Hearing the sound, everyone who was busy was startled and turned to look in the direction of the sound.

"what happened?"

Lin Caisang stood up and looked to that side. He saw a guard who was collecting firewood. The firewood he originally held fell to the ground. At this moment, he was looking at him with wide eyes. The ground not far away.

"Go and have a look."

Ya Molian also stood up and walked side by side with Lin Caisang.

They all followed after the banishment.

"Blood, blood, blood!"

The guard muttered as he stumbled back, one hand pointing at the red ground over there, as if he was scared to death.

"What are you doing? You're so surprised!" The leader came behind him and grabbed the man by the collar.

"ah!"

Immediately afterwards, there was another scream.

The guard turned around and saw that it was his leader. His body suddenly relaxed and he almost fell to the ground.

Fortunately, the leader was holding him by the back of his collar.

"Chief, there is blood, there is blood over there!"

He said nervously to the leader.

"What's so weird about blood? This is Baibind Mountain. What's so big about dying?" The leader frowned and looked at the guard displeased.

Just a little bit of blood can scare someone like this. His face has been completely disgraced by this person. They are people sent by the emperor, and they represent the emperor's face. Can they be more normal?

"It's not a bit, it's blood... a river of blood, a river of blood flowing from the mountain." The guard said to the leader with the hair on his face standing on end.

"What? A river of blood?!"

When the leader heard his words, he couldn't help but get chills.

At this time, Ya Molian and Lin Caisang had already reached the place where the guards had been. They saw a blood river almost five fingers wide, and blood was flowing downwards.

And looking up the river of blood, we will see the Baibind Mountain.

The strange thing is that the blood river is obviously flowing downward, but after reaching a certain place, all the blood that flows down seems to miraculously disappear and does not flow out anymore.

This is why the guard was so surprised.

The place where he collected firewood was clean and there was no trace of blood. But when he looked up, he could see a river of blood flowing down. Nothing could be more terrifying than Lin.
