Chapter 917 Can fly? !

"This...what the hell is this.

Looking at that beast with green eyes even in the daytime, not to mention the people on Mo's side, even if they were expelled, they couldn't help but get chills.

Outside, they have never encountered such a beast!

Not only do they have two glowing green eyes, but their long tusks are as long as those of a wild boar, and their faces are upright, like hedgehogs. As you can imagine, they must be fighting. Weapons must be very piercing.

"Sonny, come here."

Ya Molian pulled Lin Caisang behind her, and at this moment she didn't care that others would find out about their relationship.

He really regretted it. Why did he let Sonny accompany him to this hellish place? He shouldn't always pamper this girl. When he should say 'no', he should say no immediately and decisively.

"This is a fierce stork, a very powerful carnivorous beast, and they...can fly!" Lin Caisang opened his voice and told everyone what these guys who were staring at them eagerly were.

She had just learned about the food here from the Golden Pearl Order. What they like to eat most is human flesh. With such a large group of fierce storks, no one knows how many people have been killed by their fangs.

"Can fly?!"

When they heard what their mistress said, they screamed in surprise at the same time.

No wonder I always feel something strange when looking at the backs of those monsters. It turns out that there is a pair of wings hidden there, right?

"Girl, you are talking nonsense, they didn't fly at all." Commander Mo didn't believe Lin Caisang's words at all. Although this was not the time to argue with her, there were still some things he had to say clearly.

"That's because they are too heavy. If they want to fly, it will take a lot of energy. Therefore, they will not fly unless absolutely necessary."

Lin Caisang explained.

It's not just explained to Commander Mo, it's meant to let everyone know that this thing can really fly.

"King Mo, you have to be careful. Storks can't smell the smell of blood on humans. If I'm not mistaken, someone here has been injured and smells of blood."

"Who's hurt?"

The next moment, Commander Mo immediately roared.

What the hell, this bastard thing was trying to kill them, so why did he get hurt anyway?

"Back, back to the leader, it's my subordinate. When he was collecting firewood outside, he was... made a small cut." A subordinate next to Commander Mo stood up.

How could he have imagined that such a small opening would attract so many monsters?

Wouldn't this cost him his life?

"you--"

Commander Mo looked at the man with scarlet eyes, and without waiting for the man to react, he directly lifted the man and threw him into the pile of fierce men.

"Ah! Ah——"

The next moment, in front of everyone's eyes, there was a scene of dozens of fierce storks using their heads in the same direction. Bright red blood was splashed everywhere, and occasionally one or two pieces flew up. Flesh comes.

"vomit!"

Looking at the bloody scene, some people couldn't help but vomited.

"Why are you vomiting? Why don't you leave quickly!" Commander Mo glared at the man and was about to leave.

However, how could those storks give them a chance? In just a blink of an eye, a living person turned into a corpse, and then turned into food in the stork's belly, just so quickly.
