Chapter 922 This person...is your mother

In the end, everyone could only take the remaining food in their hands and start eating.

Commander Mo, who was standing next to him, looked at the food in his hand and was secretly glad that he listened to Lin Caisang and brought all the food. Otherwise, he would have been waiting to starve to death.

Everyone ate and listened to the noise outside slowly getting quieter.

"Brother Mo Lian, did you listen to Commander Mo just now? He said, twenty years ago." Lin Caisang winked at Ya Mo Lian, and the two of them walked towards the entrance of the cave.

"Have you thought of it too?" Ya Molian asked her in a deep voice.

How could it be such a coincidence that twenty years ago, some of the royal families of various countries were sent to the Qianhuan Continent, and he was born that year.

Based on this alone, everyone would think it was just a coincidence, but now that he was forced to come to Baibland Mountain, he already knew that the black hand behind the emperor was plotting against him. I'm afraid, it really wasn't that simple.

But what is hidden in it?

"Is this just a coincidence?" he asked.

"Let's check. Although it has been twenty years, we can always find some clues." Lin Caisang said with a sinking gaze.

"Alternatively, regarding the Qianhuan Continent, when I have the opportunity, it's okay for me to talk to the eldest princess. Now I feel that the eldest princess doesn't have much defense against me anymore." She suggested .

It felt like the Baibind Mountain business was becoming more and more confusing, and she couldn't figure out what was hidden in it.

"I will take care of this matter. Don't ask the eldest princess." Ya Molian said immediately when he saw what she said.

Twenty years ago, some princes and princesses from the royal families of various countries left, but it was as if no one had ever known about it. It was very strange in itself, and I am afraid that the eldest princess would not be willing to mention it.

"Okay, it's up to you."

Lin Caisang nodded. There was no need to rush this matter. The more urgent it was, the less likely they would be able to achieve the effect they wanted.

"By the way, you seemed to have an impression of Qianhuan Continent just now. Have you heard anyone mention it?" she asked.

"Um."

Ya Molian nodded.

"Really, who is he?" Lin Caisang asked.

"This person...maybe..."

After hesitating for a long time, Ya Molian didn't know how to speak to her.

"What's wrong? Isn't it hard to tell?" Lin Caisang asked when seeing him like this.

"If it's hard to say, then don't say it. Regarding Qianhuan Continent, I believe I know much more than you do now."

She didn't want to embarrass Ya Molian. Maybe this person was someone he didn't want to mention. It didn't matter if she didn't know.

"no."

Yamolian shook his head.

"This person...is your mother."

He looked at Lin Caisang and said.

"What? What did you just say?"

Lin Caisang felt her neck stiffen, and she no longer listened to her orders. She turned her head stiffly and stared into Ya Molian's dark eyes.

"When I was young, I just arrived in Yacun not long ago. Because I had good skills since I was a child, I often went to the woods to hunt some prey. You also know that your mother was rescued from outside by your father. Your father even You really don't know what your mother's name is. I happened to meet the two of them talking in the woods and heard the word Qianhuan Continent."

Ya Molian explained.

"So, what you are saying is that my mother is most likely from Qianhuan Continent?" Lin Caisang asked.

"maybe."

Ya Molian nodded.
