Chapter 930 Talking a bit too much

Looking at the man in front of them, how could they feel that this guy had his own ideas on Baibind Mountain? He talked in a certain way, which frightened them all into a daze.

But they had to admit that what he said was also a huge fact. No one could survive in an environment like Baixu Mountain without careful calculation.

Of course, they only learned to budget carefully after suffering a loss, but by the time they had to budget carefully, all the food around them had already been eaten.

By that time, there was no place to buy even regret medicine.

The few people in front of me at this moment were the ones who had nowhere to buy repentant medicine and almost starved to death.

"Brother, are you here to find someone too?" Lin Caisang looked at the man and asked.

"Um."

The man nodded.

"After my eldest and third brothers came to this ghost place, there was no news. I came to find them on orders, but..."

He should be the third prince from their country who disappeared in Baibind Mountain. It would be harder to get out of this ghost place than to reach the sky. He no longer had any hope.

"The Sixth Prince of Luoyun Kingdom?" Ya Molian raised an eyebrow.

"Do you know this king?"

The Sixth Prince saw a hint of surprise in his eyes when he revealed his identity.

Looking at the clothes of these people, except for the man and woman in front of me, everyone else is dressed in Weiguo. So are they from Weiguo?

But who are they from Weiguo? Prince? Princess?

Suddenly, an idea flashed in his mind, and he thought of something he had heard before. He immediately narrowed his eyes and looked at Ya Molian. 6

"Are you Suizi Mo, King Mo of Wei Kingdom?"

He never imagined that when he was killed in Baibind Mountain, the first people he met would be Sui Zimo from Weiguo!

After hearing his words, Ya Molian just looked at him solemnly and said nothing.

"It is said that King Mo of Wei has a very evil spirit, and he can defeat anyone. It seems that the rumors from the outside are really not to be believed." The Sixth Prince sighed lightly and said.

No, he was about to starve to death. Wasn't it the rumored King Mo who was the one who explained him?

"Sorry, I said too much."

Seeing that everyone was silent because of his words, he also felt that he should not say this. After all, Sui Zimo had been exiled for so many years because of the fate of this evil star.

"No problem."

Yamolian spit out two words lightly.

"Have the Sixth Prince encountered anything before? I heard that you brought a hundred guards with you." He asked.

"Hey, don't mention it."

When he mentioned the more than one hundred people he had brought, the Sixth Prince sighed heavily.

"Nearly half of the more than a hundred people I brought with me disappeared when they first entered Baibind Mountain, not to mention the monsters they encountered later and many more people were killed. They have been wandering around here these days and disappeared. were missing, and also lost some when they were attacked by monsters.

Now, these four people are the only ones left. "

He looked at the four guards beside him and sighed heavily again.

This White Blind Mountain is a bit too evil. As you walk on the road, the people behind you will disappear. As soon as you turn around, the people behind you will disappear. This is really scary.

"You should also be careful. I don't know what's weird here. It turns out that some people were walking well, but you never know when the people behind you will disappear."
