Chapter 933 The people on the other side of the vortex?

"The human heart has always been greedy. Although there is fear of the unknown, greed often outweighs fear. That's why when facing an unknown future, no one wants to leave.

"But....."

Jiang Zuo frowned and looked at the backs of those people. He really felt that they left easily.

"Do you think it's strange that they left so simply?" Lin Caisang asked him with a chuckle.

"Um."

Jiang Zuo nodded.

"People from Qianhuan Continent." Ya Molian spit out seven words.

"What?!"

This time, not only Jiang Zuo, but also everyone else screamed out in surprise. 6

"King Mo, you said they are from the whirlpool? Impossible, right?"

For the princes of a country, the Sixth Prince of Luoyun Kingdom naturally knows about Qianhuan Continent. Although he has never been there, he has heard it mentioned by his ancestors.

Especially before coming to Baibind Mountain, his father had warned him not to think about going to the other side of the whirlpool, but to just find his two royal brothers back.

"Why is it impossible?"

Lin Caisang glanced sideways and looked at the Sixth Prince.

"Sixth Prince, don't you think they are strange? Although they are all injured to varying degrees, and although they have gone through battles, their words are frightening, and they are trying hard to express the fear in their hearts, but..."

"The fear in their eyes is definitely fake." Ya Molian continued her words.

He knows very well what kind of people are really afraid of something. These people just pretend to be the same. What is fake is just fake and will never become real.

"I...I didn't see it." The Sixth Prince thought about it carefully, but he couldn't think of any tricks.

"Don't think about the person who takes the lead, look at the person comprehensively." Lin Caisang reminded him.

"Although the clothes of the few people brought by that person are the same as ours, the aura exuding from them is completely different from ours. And have you felt it? There is a trace of emotion in the eyes of those people looking at us. disdain.

It can be seen that they are disdainful of us. Just now, when Ban Jue distributed the dry food to them, although they all accepted it, they were obviously reluctant and seemed to dislike our kindness to them.

"hiss!"

The Sixth Prince gasped.

He really noticed this, because for them, they can save as much food as they can.

Therefore, when Ban Jue distributed the rations to them just now, everyone was keeping a close eye on him. I really hope they could be polite to Ban Jue and say they don't want their rations.

Therefore, he also discovered the weirdness of those people.

"Girl, did you do it on purpose just now?"

Deliberately asking Ban Jue to distribute dry food to them just to find out their flaws?

"Otherwise, do you think this girl would be so kind?" Lin Caisang glanced at him and asked.

Although she admitted that her heart was softer, why would she give her things to those who were not on the same side as her?

"cough."

Ya Molian coughed slightly and glanced at the little girl with her pale eyes.

This girl, if she says she's not that easy to talk to, she won't feel ashamed on her face, right?

Although this girl wanted to find out the flaws of those people, it was true that she wanted to leave a ray of hope for those people. What she was thinking just now was probably thinking about being able to make friends with those people in the future, right?
