

Star of Space 934

Chapter 934 Big snake, big python

Lin Caisang couldn't help but blush when he heard his slight cough. He lowered his head and stuck out his tongue secretly.

"Ignore others, let's go forward first and see if we can meet anyone else." Ya Molian said.

Because they were walking forward holding on to the hemp rope, and the hemp rope was added with white spider silk, which was extra strong, so after several days of walking together, no one disappeared inexplicably.

But along the way, a lot of people were lost.

After all, it was on Baibind Mountain, and there were many monsters encountered. Some were attacked and repelled, some were injured, and some died.

Commander Mo's side is the worst. He has lost nearly two-thirds of his people. At this moment, he really wants to look up to the sky and cry. This Baibind Mountain is really not a place for people. How did the emperor come? Thinking of sending him to keep an eye on Prince Mo?

In this situation, is he staring at Prince Mo, or are the monsters on Baibind Mountain staring at him?

"King Mo, why don't we find a place to rest first? There are too many injured people on my side and we really can't move." He put forward his own suggestion.

Hearing this, Ya Molian glanced at Lin Caisang, and when she nodded, she agreed.

...

On Baiyun Mountain, it is very simple to find a cave.

The group of people found another cave to live in. Although other people continued to join them, the number of people was still getting smaller and smaller. They really could not withstand the attacks of the monsters on Baibind Mountain.

‘Boom, boom boom.’

Just as everyone was lighting a fire and preparing to cook, suddenly, the whole cave shook, and the powder on the cave wall fell directly down.

"what's the situation?"

Everyone's bodies were constantly being shaken, and they stood up and wanted to go outside to check the situation.

"Don't go out!"

A person pulled down to block the door of the cave, stopping everyone's curiosity.

"What's wrong? The earth dragon turned over outside?" asked the Sixth Prince.

He has never been here before, so naturally he doesn't know what is here, but some people do.

"What about the earth dragon turning over? It's... it's similar to an earth dragon. It's a big snake, a very big python. It's looking for food nearby. We can't go out. If we go out, it will become the food in its mouth."

The man blocking the entrance to the cave said.

"python?!"

Everyone was frightened by his words.

"Yes, it's a python."

The man nodded and saw that they were still moving. He came back, sat down and told them about the python.

"The python is so long that you can't even see the tail when you see the head. It's as big as three people hugging each other. We walked near this area before and went to check it out when we felt the sound of an earthquake. Who knew...

Almost all the people I brought were buried in the bellies of those pythons. Several others were also on their way to escape, and I don't know where they ended up. Alas. "

He concluded in his mind that if he had known better, he would not have come to this ghost place!

"How big is it for three people to hug each other in a circle?" Everyone listened to these words most carefully.

Imagine three people stretching out their hands and hugging a big tree pole. They couldn't help but lean in. What a big snake. Not to mention eating people, it would scare people to death if they saw it. Bar?

"Yes, I also said there is less. The python is really too big. There are so many people here, and there is not enough for him to eat for a meal, so you must not go out and die!"

the man said.