Chapter 935 Python? You're not a monster, are you?

Everyone: "..."

The feeling of the earthquake continued and never stopped. Yamolian held a cloak and put it on top of Lin Caisang's head to prevent the gravel powder on the cave wall from getting on her body.

Everyone was in the cave, and no one dared to come out first.

However, they seemed to have made a mistake. Who said hiding in a cave would necessarily be safe?

It was still a slight earthquake at first, but after a while, it became more serious. Not only small gravels, but also large rocks began to fall down in the cave.

"No, I can't stay here anymore, I have to get out.

Ya Molian helped Lin Caisang stand up and said to everyone.

"If you go out, you will die."

The man's eyes widened. No matter what, he didn't want to be the python's dinner.

"If we don't get out, we will die here and be buried alive."

Lin Caisang glanced at him and reminded that with the density of the falling rocks, she could guarantee that the python must have smelled their breath and was entrenched next to the cave where they were, forcing them to get out.

"Exiled Jue, bring all your things and follow."

Ya Molian took Lin Caisang, and the two of them rushed out first. Seeing this, the others also bit their silver teeth, took everything with them, and rushed out. ๐๓๓

'boom! '

As soon as they rushed out, they heard a loud noise behind them. When everyone turned around to look again, there was no entrance to the cave, only dust flying on the ground.

Large rocks have blocked the entrance of the cave tightly.

"It's... it's a good thing he came out, otherwise, he would have been buried alive." Commander Mo let out a sigh of relief, raised his hand and patted his chest, feeling that he was really too lucky.

However, when he raised his eyes and looked at the... giant python entrenched on the mountain wall, he was stunned and felt that his courage was about to be shattered.

"Ah, this is... is this a python???"

His whole body was trembling as he looked at the python that could encircle the entire mountain wall. That was a python, wasn't it a monster?

Well, he was wrong. On this mountain full of white blinds, who is not a monster?

"Go, go, go!"

Lin Caisang's voice came, and the next moment, she was already running away with Ya Molian's arms around her waist, and the others followed closely.

However, no matter how far they flew, they were still not as fast as a swipe of the python's tail. They only felt a strong wind sweep by, and screams came one after another. Everyone had been swept away by the snake's tail. All fell to the ground.

Yamo Lian, Ban Jue, the others, and the Sixth Prince of Luoyun Kingdom were running fast and were not swept away by the snake's tail.

But they were not much better. In just a blink of an eye, the python that was originally entrenched on the mountain wall had already arrived in front of them. When the snake swung its body there, no one could escape.

"Master, what should I do?"

They stopped. Jiang Zuo, who had been dragged away by Jiang Li before, looked at the huge creature in front of him and could only cry and ask his own palace master.

"What should I do? Kill him!"

Before Ya Molian could speak, the Sixth Prince of Luoyun Kingdom gritted his teeth and drew out his sword.

However, when he turned his gaze from the python to his own sword, he was completely confused, because after countless fights before, his self-proclaimed sword was no longer what it was before. Got the sword.
